Brian Boyer

Head Coach • Twentieth Season

One of the most recognizable names and faces in the Sun Belt Conference and women's college basketball, Brian Boyer has built an illustrious career highlighted by countless milestones, accomplishments and success on the court.

In his 19 years on the sidelines, Boyer was the primary architect in transforming the Arkansas State women's program into a model of consistency since taking over in 1999. He has coached the Red Wolves to seven appearances in the Women's National Invitation Tournament and three SBC regular-season championships including the outright regular season crown in 2013-14 and 2015-16.

An ambassador for both Arkansas State and the sport of college basketball, Boyer has enjoyed an unprecedented level of success through an energetic and positive approach to the game. A four-time Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year (2003-04, 2004-05, 2013-14 & 2015-16), Boyer has compiled an impressive 321-269 (.544) record over his 19-year career. He is the longest tenured basketball active coach in the conference and has also coached more games than any basketball coach (men's or women's) in Arkansas State history.

Only 20 coaches have been employed that their current institution longer, placing him among the longest tenured coaches in the NCAA. Boyer started his head coaching career in 1999-00 and two other coaches from that same season are also employed with their schools as a head coach (Care Green - Liberty & Aaron Johnston - South Dakota State).

The 2017-18 season saw the Red Wolves return to the national spotlight when the team defeated Florida in a thrilling 70-69 in Gainesville in front of nationally televised audience on the SEC+ Network. The win marked the sixth victory over an SEC school in Boyer's head coaching career and it was also the 16th win over an SEC member school in the program's history. It was also the sixth non-conference road win over a higher resource conference (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12 and SEC).

A-State had an unprecedented run of success between the 2013-14 through the 2015-16 seasons and compiled 73 wins, the most in school history over any three-year span. During the run, A-State won two regular Sun Belt Conference championships, appeared in two SBC Tournament conference championship games and led his squad to three straight WNIT berth for the second time in school history.

Perhaps the most historic season in school history, the 2015-16 campaign saw the Red Wolves set school records in victories (27), consecutive wins (18), field goal percentage (45.0), scoring margin (14.5) and tie the mark for most home victories (14) in a season. The squad shattered the mark for regular season wins with 25 and won its second regular season SBC championships since 2013-14. The team received national recognition for its accomplishments and was ranked in the top-10 of the College Insider and ESPN Mid-Major polls throughout the year. A-State also received votes in both the Associated Press (AP) and Coaches' poll through much of the regular season.

A-State spent much of the year ranked in top-40 of the NCAA's RPI and fell just short appearing in the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament for the second straight season. The Red Wolves were the third highest RPI in Division I not to make the tournament, but instead make their third straight appearance in the WNIT, a feat that had only been accomplished once before in school history. Arkansas State also extended their home winning streak to 25 games, a mark that stands as the fourth longest in the NCAA.

Boyer also tutored Aundrea Gamble to her third straight Sun Belt Conference Student-Athlete of the Year honor, the only player in league history to do that. She also earned CollegeSportsMadness.com Third-Team Mid-Major All-American honors and was a top-10 finalist for the Senior CLASS award, just the second student-athlete in A-State history to reach that stage of the award. Gamble was also named the Sun Belt's Student-Athlete of the Year for all sports, making her the first player in program history to earn the prestigious award. In addition Khadija Brown-Haywood earned First-Team plaudits, while Brittney Gill was a third team selection.

The 2014-15 season saw numerous records fall in what could be considered one of Arkansas State's top-5 seasons in school history. The Red Wolves tied a school record with 21 regular season victories and fell just one win shy of tying the all-time mark of wins in a single year at 25. The squad participated in the Preseason WNIT and Postseason WNIT, one of just two teams in the country to do that, and narrowly missed garnering the program's first NCAA Tournament berth with an RPI of 44 at season's end. The Red Wolves had the highest RPI of any team in the country to not make the NCAA Tournament.

Under Boyer's tutelage, Gamble collected her second straight Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year honor after winning the league's scoring title and setting the school record for most assists in a single season. She was also named a CollegeSportsMadness.com Mid-Major First-Team All-American and earned Sun Belt Conference All-Tournament Team honors. In addition, Jasmine Hunt and Khadija Brown-Haywood also earned Third-Team All-Conference honors and finished second and third on the team respectfully in scoring.

In 2013-14 the Red Wolves finished with a 22-12 overall record and a 14-4 mark in the Sun

Belt Conference (SBC). The squad captured the outright regular-season Sun Belt Conference title for the first time in school history. A-State entered the SBC Tournament as the No. 1 seed and advanced to the championship game for the second time in program history.

It was also a historic year for Boyer, who surpassed former Louisiana Tech coach Leon Barmore and Florida International coach Cindy Russo for the most league wins in Sun Belt Conference at 136 on March 5, 2014 and won his third career SBC Coach of the Year award at the end of the season. Boyer currently stands at 153 career league wins.

Boyer has coached 29 players to All-Conference status during his tenure, but his team's success is not limited to just on the court. The program won back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Team Academic honors in 2012-13 and 2013-14 and added another in 2014-15 with team GPA's that were over the 3.0 mark.

In 2011, he became Arkansas State's all-time leader in victories in with his 197th win over UALR on Feb. 26, 2011. He captured his 200th career win on Nov. 20, 2013 and his 225th career win on Feb. 16, 2013.

Boyer had immediate success upon being named the program's sixth head coach in 1999-2000. He guided his initial team to an 18-12 overall record and a berth in the WNIT tournament for the second consecutive season. After a 14-win year and back-to-back 12-win season, Arkansas State entered into what was perhaps its best five-year stretch in history from 2003-2008.

Arkansas State had 96 wins over the five years, three WNIT appearances and captured a share of the 2003-04 SBC East Division regular-season crown. In 2004-05, A-State advanced to the quarterfinals of the WNIT, which included a 98-84 over Arkansas in front of a record crowd of 10,892 at First National Bank Arena.

THROUGH THE YEARS

In his first season, Boyer guided Arkansas State to its only top-25 ranking in school history. A-State was ranked in a tie for 25th place with Boston College with 48 votes in the Associated Press Poll on Jan. 3, 2000. He finished the year with an 18-12 record making him the first coach since Sara Wooley to 18 games in the first season as a head coach.

The 2003-04 season culminated with the program's first-ever regular season conference championship, and a return to the WNIT. The Red Wolves finished 19-10 overall and 10-4 in league play, earning a share of the Sun Belt East division title as they posted one of the top turnarounds in Division I, picking up seven more wins than the previous season. A-State's 19 victories that season were the most since the 1997-98 season, sparked in part by the best start in school basketball history - a seven game win streak to open the season. The strong start carried over into Sun Belt play as Arkansas held the top spot in the East division from start to finish. Adrienne Davie earned honorable-mention all-conference honors as a true freshman, and Boyer was rewarded with his first conference Coach of the Year Award.

In the 2004-05 season, A-State put together a program-best 10-game Sun Belt Conference winning streak, part of an 11-game win streak that was the fourth longest in school history. Arkansas finished the season 21-11 overall and in second place in the Sun Belt East Division at 11-3, giving Boyer his first 20-win season as head coach. The squad advanced to the quarterfinals of the WNIT Tournament, defeating SEC powers Mississippi State and Arkansas along the way. The team's success earned Boyer his second straight Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year Award and joined former A-State coach Jerry Ann Winters as the only two A-State women's basketball coaches to win back-to-back coach of the year honors. Adrienne Davie, Rudy Sims and Ali Carter all earned All-Sun Belt honors following the 2004-05 season, marking the first time in Red Wolves history that three players earned all-conference honors in a single season.

In the 2006-07 season the Red Wolves finished 21-13, advanced to the second round of the WNIT before falling to eventual tournament runner-up Wisconsin, and continued to build on their already-impressive home record with a 14-2 mark at First National Bank Arena. Arkansas State posted home victories over NCAA Tournament participants Oklahoma State and Louisiana-Lafayette, Southeastern Conference member Alabama, and WNIT participants South Dakota State and Murray State. In all, 14 of the Red Wolves' 34 games during the 2006-07 season were against teams that played in the NCAA or WNIT tournaments. The 2006-07 Red Wolves also reached the 10-victory milestone quicker than any other team in ASU history, picking up their 10th win of the season Jan. 3, 2007.

Under Boyer's guidance, several individual records fell during the 2006-07 season as well. Seniors Adrienne Davie and Rudy Sims rewrote the Red Wolves record books, with Davie shattering the career blocked shots record with 132 and the career rebounding record with 1,147. Sims set a new mark in career assists with 548, and became the first A-State player in over a decade to record a triple-double when she scored 14 points, grabbed 11 rebounds, and handed out 10 assists in a 65-58 overtime victory at Louisiana-Lafayette. Davie was named All-Sun Belt Conference for the fourth straight season, while Sims earned the honor for the third straight year. Senior Ali Carter became the 16th member of the career 1,000-point club.

Although the 2007-08 season was expected by many to be a rebuilding year, Boyer put forth what was arguably one of his finest coaching performances, molding a group of unheralded players into a team that produced yet another 20-win season at Arkansas State. Faced with the task of replacing three 1,000-point scorers, including the program's all-time leading shot blocker and rebounder, along with the all-time assists leader, Boyer directed Arkansas State to a 20-12 record. A-State won a record 13 conference games during the 2007-08 season, and reached the semifinals of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament for the 13th time in 16 tries. The Red Wolves finished the season with the distinction of being the only Division I program in the country with a winning record that did not have a single player who averaged double figure scoring.

Arkansas State posted victories over Brigham Young and Alabama early in the season, earning the win over the Crimson Tide on the road in Tuscaloosa. The Red Wolves finished 2007 with a 6-7 record, but went on a tear in the New Year, closing out the season with a 14-5 finish and a run to the semifinals of the SBC Tournament for the fourth consecutive season.

BEFORE ARKANSAS STATE

Boyer came to Arkansas State in 1995 and spent four seasons as an assistant under Jeff Mittie who has had coaching stops at TCU and now Kansas State.

Prior to his arrival he spent time as an assistant to the men's team at Missouri Western, which was a NCAA Division II Tournament participant five years (1990, 1991, 1992, 1994 and 1995) and won two conference championships. The team made the Sweet 16 in 1990. As a women's assistant, Boyer and Missouri Western made two NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Final Four in 1995 and the Elite Eight the previous season.

The team went 31-3 in 1995 and made it to the Final Eight of the national tournament. It also went undefeated through its MIAA schedule at 16-0. In 1994, the team finished third in the nation, losing in a national semifinal contest and finishing with a 29-3 overall mark.

PERSONAL

Boyer was recognized as 100 Outstanding Staff to Contribute to the success of Arkansas State during its first 100 years in 2012.

He is a highly sought after motivational speaker and speaks on a broad range of topics in addition to Red Wolves basketball and is frequently requested both locally and nationally. Boyer is extremely active in and around the Jonesboro community, donating his time and money to many organizations.

Boyer is a graduate of Missouri Western State College in St. Joseph, Mo., where he earned his bachelor's degree in education.

Autumn Rademacher

Assistant Coach • Fourth Season

Autumn Rademacher enters her fourth season at Arkansas State.

In her three seasons with the school, the Red Wolves have compiled 49 victories and had one of the league's most potent offenses, ranking near the top of many statistical categories over the span. During the 2016-17 season, she helped A-State finish as the league's top 3-point shooting team with a .339 percentage, the seventh best in school history.

The 2017-18 saw a number of historic achievements for A-State, including a 70-69 over Florida in Gainesville, which marked just the sixth non-conference road win over a higher resource conference school (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12 and SEC). It was also the 16th win over an SEC member school in program history.

Rademacher also helped coach Akasha Westbrook to the All-Sun Belt Conference Second Team after the junior finished with a 13.4 points per game average and a 48.1 percent field goal percentage, both of which were top-10 in the league.

In 2015-16, Rademacher helped A-State to a 27-6 overall record and a 19-1 mark in Sun Belt Conference play en route to a regular season conference championship and the No. 1 seed in the SBC Championship tournament. The Red Wolves set school records in wins (27), winning streak (18), consecutive home victories (25) and field goal percentage (45.0).

Arkansas State's run included a trip to the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) for the 11th time in school history and recognition as one of the nation's top teams as the Red Wolves' received votes in both the AP and Coaches' polls throughout the season. In addition, A-State suffered just two losses by double-digits and won all but three of its games by double-digits.

Rademacher also helped Aundrea Gamble become the first player in Sun Belt Conference history to win the Student-Athlete of the Year award three times in a career and also helped her achieve Mid-Major All-American status from CollegeSportsMadness.com. Under Rademacher's tutelage, Gamble improved her 3-point field goal percentage and assists averages, while also grabbing a career-high in rebounds.

She also helped Khadija Brown-Haywood and Brittney Gill earn SBC All-Conference accolades as both players posted career-highs in scoring, field goal percentage and rebounds.

In addition to the success on the court, A-State was strong force in the classroom and won the SBC Team Academic award three times in four seasons, including most recently in 2015-16 with a team GPA of 3.17. The Red Wolves also placed eight student-athletes on the SBC Commissioner's List and SBC Academic Honor Rolls.

Rademacher, the 2010 Horizon League Coach of the Year, spent the previous seven seasons as head coach at the University of Detroit Mercy where she compiled 101 victories and helped the Titans reach the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) in 2012 and captured the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) title in 2013.

Rademacher is the school's all-time leader in victories for a women's basketball coach and had three 20-plus-win seasons during her tenure at Detroit. She had 17 players earn postseason accolades from the Horizon League, including First-Team All-Conference honorees, a Sixth Player of the Year award and All-Newcomer accolades.

The 2012-13 season proved to be a historic one for the Titans and Rademacher. Coming off a WNIT berth the season before, Detroit compiled a 21-13 record to claim back-to-back winning seasons for the first in over a decade. Not only did the Titans post back-to-back winnings seasons, but they also won 20 games in back-to-back years since the early 1980s. Detroit set a school record with 16 home victories, the second most in the country.

Rademacher guided the Titans to a 20-14 record in 2011-12 and helped her program reach a postseason (WNIT) for the first time since 1997. Detroit set a school record with 14 league victories and played in the Horizon League Title game for the sixth time in school history. She was named the 2012 CollegeSportsMadness.com Horizon League Coach of the Year and helped end Green Bay's perfect season a 70-58 victory over the school before the conference tournament.

Offensively, Detroit tallied 70 or more points 13 times, including a season-high 90 in a 30-point victory over IPFW. The Titans also broke a 15-year school record in that contest shooting 65.5% (38-of-58) as a team. Detroit outrebounded its opponent in 23 of its 34 games and owned a +4.9 rebounding margin on the season, second in the Horizon League. The Titan defense held an opponent to under 60 points 14 times on the year and under 50 points on five occasions.

Prior to becoming head coach at her alma mater, she was an assistant at Green Bay for four years, helping the squad to four Horizon League regular-season championships and two postseason titles (2005 and 2007). Before joining the Phoenix, Rademacher spent seven years as an assistant coach at Western Michigan, helping the Broncos advance to postseason play four times, including a berth in the 2003 NCAA Tournament following its MAC Tournament title.

Rademacher played for the Titans from 1993-97. She earned MCC First Team honors in 1996 and again in 1997, and was a Second-Team, as well as an All-Newcomer Team honoree as a freshman in 1994. She is the school's third all-time leading scorer with 1,686 points and ranks in the top-10 in multiple statistical categories after four seasons as a starter at UDM, including fourth in career assists (439) and second in career 3-point field goals (201). Rademacher helped lead the Titans to a Horizon League post-season championship and a berth in the 1997 NCAA Tournament as a senior season.

A native of Traverse City and a Third Team All-State selection at Traverse City High School, Rademacher graduated from the University of Detroit Mercy in 1997 with a degree in criminal justice.

Deidra Johnson

Assistant Coach • Fourth Season

Deidra Johnson enters her fourth season at Arkansas State.

The 2017-18 season saw a return to the national scene for the Red Wolves, which included a 70-69 road victory over Florida in the early part of the season. It marked just the 16th win over an SEC member school in program history, and it was just the sixth non-conference road win over a higher resource conference school (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12 and SEC) in school history.

Johnson also played a key role in the development of Aka-sha Westbrook, who became an All-Sun Belt Conference Second Team selection after finishing among the league's leaders in scoring, field goal percentage and free throw percentage. She also led the league in steals (71) and steals per game (2.4), becoming the first A-State player to do so since the early 1990s.

Johnson has also worked close with post players in her tenure and helped mold Lauren Bradshaw into the most prolific shot blocker in school history. Bradshaw finished her career with 176 blocks and in doing so became the school's all-time career leader in blocked shots, while also ranking among the Sun Belt Conference's top-15 shot blockers in a career.

In 2015-16, Johnson was a key component on the A-State coaching staff as the Red Wolves posted a school-best 27-6 overall record and a 19-1 mark in Sun Belt Conference record. The 19 league victories were the most in SBC history, as A-State won a regular season championship for the second time in three seasons.

The Red Wolves' participated in the Women's National Invitation (WNIT) at the season's end for the 11th time in their history and posted an opening round home victory over Southern University. The victory extended the program's home win streak to 25 games, the fourth longest streak in the nation.

Arkansas State averaged 75.0 points per game in 2015-16, the third highest average in school history, and were among the nation's best in taking care of the basketball and finished with the 12th best turnover margin in all of Division I.

Johnson was vital in helping Aundrea Gamble become the first player in Sun Belt Conference history to win three straight Student-Athlete of the Year awards and she helped the CollegeSportsMadness.com Mid-Major Third-Team All-American improve her 3-point shooting and become just the fourth player in A-State history to average 5.0 or more assists per game.

The A-State assistant also helped mold Khadija Brown-Haywood into an SBC First-Team All-Conference player after the senior led the Red Wolves' in both rebounding and 3-point field goal percentage. Johnson also worked with Brittney Gill, who was a third-team all-conference pick, who posted a career-high in points per game.

Johnson rought multiple years of coaching experience, including four years at the Division I level that includes stops at Marshall and Texas-San Antonio. Most recently, she spent a season at Blinn College in Texas where she helped the Buccaneers to a 20-win season and a regional tournament berth.

During her tenure at Blinn, the Buccaneers compiled a 20-11 overall record and she helped four players earn Division I scholarships. Four others went on to play at Division II schools, while two of her players earned All-Region with one garnering First-Team honors.

Prior to Blinn, Johnson spent time at UTSA and helped the Roadrunners to a fourth-place finish in the Western Athletic Conference in 2012-13. The team followed up its impressive season by advancing to the second round of the WAC Tournament in 2013-14, which included an upset victory over Tulsa.

While at UTSA she was part of a coaching that helped the team lead the Western Athletic Conference in scoring defense (57.7 ppg) and field goal percentage defense (.379), while UTSA ranked fourth in blocks (3.4) and steals (9.7) per game. Under Johnson's tutelage, Whitney Wright led the team with 39 blocks to set the school's all-time record (105), while Kamra King earned third-team all-conference honors after leading the team in scoring (9.3 ppg) for the second consecutive season.

Johnson spent two years as an assistant coach at Marshall, where she also served as the recruiting coordinator during the 2011-12 campaign. In addition to her duties as recruiting coordinator, Johnson coached the guards and the group accounted for the top six scorers on the team. The unit also hit 32 percent of its 3-point attempts, which led Conference USA, and the group helped the Thundering Herd hold their opponents to just 56.1 points per game by averaging 10.5 steals per contest.

She also mentored the team's post players in her first season, including Tynikki Crook, who was named second-team all-conference after leading the circuit in scoring at 16.2 ppg.

Johnson began her coaching career at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas as an assistant coach before moving on to Chipola College in Marianna, Fla., where she was the team's recruiting coordinator. While at Chipola she helped the team to a third-place finish in the 2009 NJCAA National Basketball Championship and called the Florida NJCAA Regional Tournament championship.

Before departing after a pair of seasons at Chipola (Fla.) College, Johnson signed the No. 3 recruiting class in the country and coached 10 players that earned Division I scholarships and three that went on to play professionally, including Latoya Williams, recently of the WNBA's San Antonio Silver Stars. She also coached guards and helped coordinate recruiting during the 2007-08 season at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College.

From 2005-07, Johnson worked for the Boy's and Girls Club of El Dorado (Ark.). She served as the Teen-Center Director for two years while also working as the SMART Girls Program Director in her final year with the organization.

Johnson began her collegiate playing career at the University of Arkansas at Fort Smith. In two seasons with the Lady Lions, she was named to the All-NJCAA BI State East First Team and the All-NJCAA Region VI First Team.

Following her time there, she finished her college career at Oklahoma State, playing for the Cowgirls from 2002-04. Johnson was named to the Big XII Commissioner's Honor Roll and the National Deans List in her time at OSU and was also a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

During his tenure as Houston's head coach, he helped Courtney Taylor to CUSA Player of the Year and CUSA Defensive Player of the Year honors. In addition to Taylor, five other Cougars reached CUSA All-Conference status during his tenure, while Roxana Button was a Capital One Academic First-Team All-American in during the 2011-12 season.

In his first season leading the Houston women's basketball program in 2010-11, Buchanan posted an overall record of 26-6, marking the second-most wins in school history, while storming through Conference USA with a perfect 16-0 mark in regular season play, becoming only the second team in league history to achieve the feat.

Buchanan also returned the Cougars back to national prominence as Houston earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and cracked the top 25 polls for the first time since the 2004-05 season.

Buchanan, who was the lone first-year head coach to take his team to the NCAA Tournament in 2011, was honored as the Conference USA Coach of the Year, marking only the second Houston floor general to garner the accolade, while also being named a WBCA National Coach of the Year finalist.

Prior to his time with the Cougars, Buchanan was the man in charge of the Houston Baptist women's program where his team won a Red River Athletic Conference regular-season championship, a pair of RRAC Tournament titles and finished in the top 25 twice, including a No. 6 ranking to end the 2005-06 campaign. 2017-18 NOTEABLES

QUEEN OF REJECTION

- Lauren Bradshaw became a dominant presence in the paint during her career and holds the school record with 176 blocks in her career.
- She became A-State's all-time leader in career blocks. She surpassed Adrienne Davie total of 132 on Dec. 14, 2017 against Belmont in the first quarter
- She as just the third player in school history to block 100 shots in a career.

BOUNCE BACK GAMES

- Arkansas State went 13-1 in games immediately following a loss in the 2017-18 season.
- The Red Wolves scored an average of 75.1 points in those games, while holding opponents to 65.6 points per contest

ADVANCED METRICS

- Akasha Westbrook was one of just eight players in the league that had an efficiency rating of 10 or better. She finished with an efficiency rating of 10.5.
- The efficiency rating is a composite statistic that is derived from basic individual statistics: points, rebounds, assists, steals, blocks, turnovers and shot attempts. The efficiency stat, accounts for both a player's offensive contributions (points, assists) and their defensive contributions (steals, blocks).

RED WOLVES SWAMP GATORS

- A-State earned a 70-69 win at Florida on Nov. 11, continuing a long history of success win for the program as it began its 19th season under the direction of head coach Brian Boyer.
- It also marked the sixth career victory over an SEC school for Brian Boyer in his tenure.
- It was also the 16th win over an SEC member school in program history.
- The non-conference road win was the sixth in program history against a team from the higher resource conferences (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12 and SEC).
- A-State last picked up a non-conference road win against a higher resource conference on Nov. 16, 2009 at Kansas State (80-79^{OT}).
- The other seven road wins against higher conferences are: at Alabama (2007 | 49-45), at Kansas (1999 | at 72-70), at TCU (1999 | 73-67), Mississippi State (1997 | 76-68),

Missouri (1996 | 68-65), Baylor (1995 | 64-57), Mississippi State (1992 | 77-72).

- Overall, the Red Wolves have 40 wins over schools from high resource conferences.

HARD TO BELIEVE

- For the first time in the 2017-18 and the second time in her career Akasha Westbrook crossed the 20-point plateau when she turned in a career-high 23 points at South Alabama on Feb. 10.
- Westbrook, who led the team in scoring, had not scored more than 19 points in a game this before Feb. 10, but has scored in double-figures 20 times this year.
- Westbrook also tied a career-high with six steals in the contest, marking the second time this season she has had six steals in a game.

THE PICK POCKET

- Akasha Westbrook led the Sun Belt Conference in steals, averaging 2.5 per game and totaling 71 in 29 games
- Westbrook finished the year as the league's leader in steals, and became the first A-State player to do so since Sonja Tate lead the Sun Belt in steals in back-to-back seasons from 1991-1993.

MIXING AND MATCHING

- A-State used 16 different starting lineup combinations this past season.
- No player started in every game, but Akasha Westbrook and Lauren Bradshaw started in all but one game.
- Eleven of the 15 lineup combinations have produced at least one victory this season.

YOUNG ROSTER

- A-State's roster in 2017-18 featured 11 freshman and sophomores, the most in the Sun Belt Conference.
- The Red Wolves have just four juniors and seniors, the second fewest in the league trailing only Coastal Carolina who has just three upperclassmen.
- Arkansas State also tops the list with Georgia State with six total sophomores.

During her junior season she became just the second player in program history to reach All-America status when the WBCA named her an honorable mention All-American. She also garnered CollegeSportsMadness Mid-Major First-Team All-America status that same season.

As a senior she led the Red Wolves to their third straight WNIT berth and was named to the CollegeSportsMadness Mid-Major All-America third team. She also became just the second student-athlete in school history (male or female) to be named to the NCAA Senior CLASS All-America squad, finishing as a second team honoree.

For her career Gamble finished fourth on the A-State career scoring list with 1,932 points and is tied for second with 479 assists. She ranks eighth all-time with 200 steals and is second with eight 30-plus point performances.

Gamble won the SBC Player of the Week award on Feb. 15, 2015 for the seventh time in her career, the most in A-State history. The McKinney, Texas native also finished as just one of 10 active players in the NCAA to score over 1,600 points, grab 400 rebounds and dish out 400 assists in a career. She registered double figure scoring in 89 of the 102 games she played in and also scored 15 or more points in 77 of those games and 20 or more points in 53 games. She also finished with 11 career double-doubles.

Sonja Tate

1992-93 Kodak

Sonja Tate, who played at A-State from 1989-93, is arguably one of the best basketball players to ever put on an Arkansas State uniform. She remains the leader in six statistical categories and scored 2,312 points in her career, the most of any men's or women's basketball player in school history.

She set the single-season scoring record at ASU with 820 points during the 1992-93 season and owns the top-five single game scoring performances in school history. She remains the only ASU women's player to have scored 40 or more points in a single game, a feat she accomplished five times, including a 50-point performance against Louisiana-Lafayette during the 1992-93 season. Tate connected on 95 three-pointers during the 1992-93 season, an ASU record that still stands. She pulled down 327 rebounds that season, the most of any player in a single season.

The West Memphis, Ark., native is third on the all-time career rebounding charts at ASU with 1,006 and is the career leader in steals with 402. She owns the top-two single-season steals records with 125 during the 1992-93 season in 114 swipes during the 1991-92 campaign.

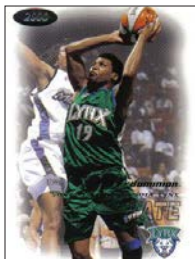

Tate also remains the only player in ASU history to record a quadruple double, finishing with 29 points, 14 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in an 86-59 victory at Mississippi Valley State Jan. 27, 1993. Later that season, she led A-State to a 67-54 win over SMU and earned MVP honors in the National Women's Invitation Tournament.

Following her freshman season, she was named Co-Newcomer of the Year in the American South Conference. She earned All-American South Conference honors as a sophomore and All-Sun Belt Conference honors as a junior and a senior. Prior to her senior season, she was named preseason first-team All-America by Dick Vitale's Basketball Magazine and following the season was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and a Kodak All-American.

She was also an All-American track and field athlete while at ASU, and remains in the top-10 in ASU history in six events. She set the school record in the heptathlon in 1994 with 5,247 points, a mark that remains at No. 2 today.

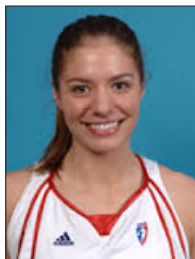

The former guard was inducted into the ASU Hall of Honor in 2004, two years after finishing her WNBA career with the Minnesota Lynx, where she was a three-year starter. During her time with the Lynx, she led the team in minutes played, assists and steals and was among the top-three rebounders on the team. She also played professionally in France, Russia, Spain, and with the American Basketball League.

RED WOLVES IN THE PROS

Arkansas State has a rich history when it comes to sending players to the professional ranks. The Red Wolves have sent players to the WNBA, ABL, Israel, Spain, France, Russia and other parts of Europe. The most notable of A-State pro alumni is former assistant coach Sonja Tate who played in multiple countries overseas, in the ABL and later in the WNBA for the Minnesota Lynx. Tate's career spanned four countries and two professional leagues in the United States. To date, she is the only Arkansas State women's basketball to have played in the WNBA.

More recently, current assistant coach and three-time Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year Aundrea Gamble was invited to participate in training camp with the Los Angeles Sparks in the summer of 2017. Gamble spent a month with the Sparks and played in a pair of preseason games before being letgo before the start of the regular season.

The Red Wolves have continued to produce talent that is coveted around the world. Most recently Ashley Olvera, who played at Arkansas State from 2011-13, signed to play professionally in Israel, joining former forward Shay Scott as the last two Red Wolves to continue their careers overseas. Scott played at A-State from 2008-11 and signed to play after the conclusion of her senior season. In 2007, a pair of A-State greats were invited to the WNBA Pre-Draft Camp in Cleveland, Ohio. Adrianne Davie and Rudy Sims were each invited to the camp that offered coaches and general managers from all 13 WNBA teams an opportunity to evaluate the top young players from around the world in advance of the 2007 WNBA Draft. Davie was later invited to the Connecticut Sun's training camp but was let go before the start of the 2007 WNBA season.

Tanisha Johnson, who lettered in 1999 and 2000, also spent time overseas in several professionally leagues in the early part of the century. Julie Hagood took part in the WNBA Pref-Draft camp in 2000 and was part of the USA Team Trials in Colorado Spring, Colorado in the summer of 1999. Tate also took part in the USA Trials prior to the start of the start of her senior season in the early 1990s.

NWIT CHAMPIONSHIP

1992-93 NWIT CHAMPIONSHIP

March 27 Championship (Amarillo, Texas) SMU 67-54 W

Arkansas State University put a national championship in its pocket here Saturday night.

The Lady Indians knocked off Southern Methodist University, 67-54, to win the 25th annual National Women's Invitation Basketball Tournament. It was the 300th game in the tourney's history.

All-America guard Sonja Tate, who was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player, and All-Sun Belt Conference forward Shyla Tucker, also named to the all-tournament team, paced the Lady Tribe.

Tate, who played all 40 minutes, capped a marvelous career with 26 points--13 in each half--and also claimed 16 rebounds against SMU. In the three NWIT games, played the last three days, she notched 90 points and 36 rebounds.

For her ASU career, the 5-6 Tate ended up with totals of 2,312 points, 1,006 rebounds and 402 steals. Plus, she set an NWIT record with 14 three-pointers for the tournament.

Tucker, a 5-11 junior, tallied 19 points against the Lady Mustangs. Thirteen of those came in the clutch, after SMU had rallied midway in the second half to erase an eight-point ASU halftime lead.

Tucker's all-tournament state included 52 points and 22 rebounds.

A-State, which closed the season with a 25-8 record, equalled its winningest season ever--the 25-7 mark of last year. By last campaign's 25 wins only had the tinge of third-place finisher in the NWIT.

"I don't have any idea how to explain what kind feeling this is," said head coach Jerry Ann Winters. We've had a tremendous team the last two or three years but could never get over the hump. We've always come up just a little short--except this time. I guess the best way to say it is what the girls told me in the dressing room: 'We finally got one coach.'"

A-State trailed only once against SMU, 2-0 at the start. They followed Tate's lead and pushed to a 9-2 edge, fell back to a 17-all tie and then manged the eight-point halftime lead, 31-23.

SMU began creeping back in the second half, going on a 12-6 run during the first eight minutes. ASU went cold to contribute to the Lady Mustangs' cause.

Kim Brungardt had a conventional three-point play--inside basket and ensuing free throw--to tie the score at 41-all with 9:34 to play.

It was 43-43 when Tucker entered the picture--from an extended breather on the bench--and scored nine points over the next six minutes.

With freshman Crystal Tausan also involved offensively, ASU forged a 52-43 command with less than six minutes showing. SMU never got closer than seven the rest of the way, as ASU's three T's---Tate, Tucker, Tausan--kept hitting inside baskets and free throws.

"I finally felt comfortable when the clock showed less than a minute and were up by 15," Winters said. "It was grueling--just like the other two games we had here. SMU just wouldn't go away and let us get on with our mission. We had to do it."

SMU, the tournament's eight-seed and upset-winner in the opening round over top-seed UNLV, closed its season with 20-10 mark.

Leading SMU were Brungardt with 20 points and Shannell Thomas with 12.

Tucker finished with five of ASU's 15 steals.

RED WOLVES LOCKER ROOM

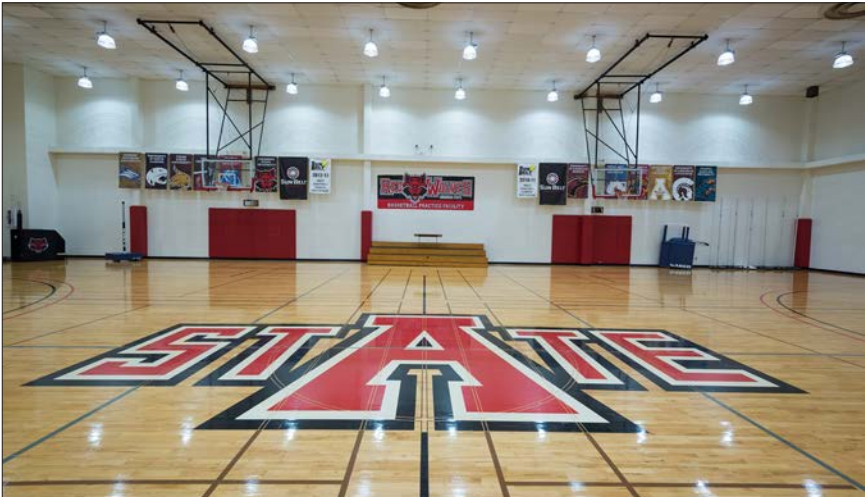

The Arkansas State University women's basketball program moved into a new home prior to the 2009-10 season following a complete locker room renovation. The A-State women's basketball locker room expanded not only in size, but underwent comprehensive remodeling.

Among the several highlights to the renovated A-State women's basketball locker room was an increased locker area featuring brand-new custom lockers for each student-athlete. These individualized lockers include each men's basketball student-athlete's name, jersey number, hometown and photo.

A player's lounge with Red Wolves logo embroidered leather couches and wide-screen high definition television along with several computers for student-athlete use are other amenities to make the 'Red Wolves Experience' unique. The locker room also features newly-remodeled shower facilities and new custom marker boards for use by the Red Wolves' coaching staff. The walls are adorned with custom A-State graphics as well as new carpeting covering the floors with custom-made Red Wolves logo rugs.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The main Arkansas State University strength and conditioning area features 70 work stations, flooring, flexibility area, power area, speed area, cardiovascular area, training equipment, Olympic weightlifting platforms, air and heating system and training security measures.

First National Bank Arena also includes the state-of-the-art Strength and Conditioning Room used by the A-State men's basketball team, which was remodeled prior to the 2008-09 season. The upgrades included all new weights, new floor covering, wall covering, lighting and entrance doors.

The project was completed at a cost of approximately $150,000 with a large portion of the funding coming from a generous contribution from the Clopton Clinic of Jonesboro.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

The A-State Sports Medicine Department operates five athletic training rooms on campus. First National Bank Arena is the home for all men's and women's basketball, women's volleyball, and indoor track competitions and practices.

Located in First National Bank Arena is a 2,000-square foot athletic training room which is fully equipped to provide all the necessary pre and post-practice treatment. The Tim and Terri Langford Sports Medicine area has undergone recent changes and construction such as new tables, flooring, ceiling, paint and offices.

The Arkansas State University men's basketball program's commitment to academics is a significant one.

All of the necessary tools and resources for A-State student-athletes to achieve academic success is provided. This includes academic tutoring and mentoring, learning skills assessments and strategies, course management assistance, degree program advisement and career development.

The Arkansas State University Athletics Department announced the fourth largest single donation in its history, a $400,000 gift from Charles Luter that was used to enhance the athletics' academic facility, at a press conference held at the newly named Charles Luter Family Academic Success Center in September of 2008.

The Academic Success Center serves as a foundation for structure, discipline and organization for the education of all A-State student-athletes. The facility, coupled with innovative programs and equipment, currently houses the academic support staff, tutors, computer labs, a resource room, study areas, tutorial rooms, small group study centers, a large conference room, the compliance office and spring sports coaching offices.

Among the most recent and noticeable modifications to the Charles Luter Family Academic Success Center is a new foyer housed in a brick and rock exterior that, along with new landscaping, gives the entrance to the building a modern look and creates a stronger image. The actual foyer has a large Red Wolves logo embedded in a terrazzo flooring that greets visitors as they enter the building. A receptionist office now also connects to the lobby area, which holds all-new furniture and a plaque recognizing Charles and his wife Kay.

A restructuring of the academic resource center, now known as Dawson's Den, has occurred, including a wall-wrap celebrating academic success that is clearly visible for student-athletes working in the computer lab. Additionally, tutorial rooms and computer-work stations have been upgraded in this area, which also displays pictures of the most recent A-State graduates. The names of the latest members of the Athletic Director's Honor Roll are also showcased in Dawson's Den. The area is named after Scott and Kay Dawson, longtime supporters of Red Wolves' athletics.

Red Wolf Leadership Academy

It is well-known that collegiate athletics departments across the country place a common emphasis on graduation, but Arkansas State has taken it a step further by already fulfilling a bold promise of 100 percent job placement for all its graduating student-athletes.

A-State has met its job-placement goal through its newly-developed Red Wolves Leadership Academy, which continues to strengthen with a new study abroad component added to foster global awareness which is often cited by employers as a positive attribute they seek.

In the summer of 2015, Arkansas State student-athletes took part in the first study abroad program offered by any university and their athletics department in the nation. The program goes hand-in-hand with the Red Wolves Leadership Academy, designed with the sole purpose to obtain 100 percent job placement for ALL student-athletes upon graduation.

The Red Wolves took a ground-breaking step by sending the group of student-athletes to London on a faculty-led academic program. For A-State Director of Athletics Terry Mohajir, this is just one of the many ways it all comes back to providing the Red Wolves with the most comprehensive experiences possible to be successful in life.

According to a recent CNN article (2014), titled "Studying abroad could give you an edge in the job market," only one percent of U.S. college students manage to study abroad. The author can now count these and future Red Wolves among that one percent.

Research conducted by UC Merced backs up what Mohajir, the A-State Athletics Department, and A-State Chancellor Dr. Tim Hudson, who has led hundreds of such programs, believes — adding the study abroad component to the Red Wolves Leadership Academy puts its student-athletes among the most desirable employees in the nation coming out of college and helps create global citizens.

The UC Merced research also showed that 97 percent of study abroad students found employment within 12 months of graduation, while only 49 percent of college graduates found employment in the same period. Additionally, statistics revealed study abroad students had a 25 percent higher starting salary than those college graduates who did not study abroad.

Graduate school also falls under the all-encompassing umbrella provided by the Red Wolves Leadership Academy and is included in its goal of 100 percent job placement since it has a significant impact on future employment. According to IES Abroad research ("Recent Graduates Survey: The Impact of Studying Abroad on Recent College Graduates' Careers", 2012), 90 percent of alumni who were accepted into one of their top two choices for graduate or professional school studied abroad.

Like Mohajir and Dr. Hudson, Dr. DeeDee Hudson, Director of the Office of Study Abroad at A-State, and Dr. Osa Amienyi, Chair of the Department of Media at Arkansas State University, were part of the study abroad vision and instrumental in bringing it to fruition.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Arkansas State's athletics programs compete in top-of-the line facilities.

Centennial Bank Stadium, which opened in 1974, has evolved into a beautiful stadium which seats over 30,000 fans. The stadium has undergone a "Centennial Expansion" construction project that covers 40,000 square feet, including the press box and concourse.

The 192,000 square-foot First National Bank Arena is a multi-purpose facility that is home to the A-State basketball, volleyball and indoor track and field teams.

Coaches and student-athletes moved into a new $2.7 million track and field complex in spring 2004. It contains an eight-lane 400-meter track and can be set up for two NCAA venues.

Three local country clubs graciously allow A-State men's and women's golf programs to utilize their facilities for practice and play.

J.A. "Ike" Tomlinson Stadium-Kell Field serves as the home to Red Wolves baseball. Built in 1993, the stadium received complete lighting in 1996, 206 field level seats were added for the 2008 season and a new scoreboard was installed in 2011.

A-State's newest women's program, bowling, competes in the Jonesboro Bowling Center. Coming in the 2015-16 season, the bowling team will have a locker room and player's lounge at the Jonesboro Bowling Center.

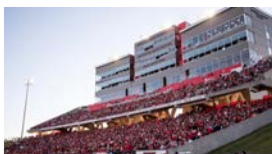

The Red Wolves' soccer and track and field teams utilized the same stadium for the first time in school history during the 2014-15 season, as the soccer field was relocated as part of the track facility.

A-State has also completed a new women's soccer and women's tennis facility, which houses both squads' locker rooms, training room, offices and more.

Facilities have received a number of face lifts since Director of Athletics Terry Mohajir's arrival in 2012, making sure that the athletic department's "front door" and other sports areas possess a first-class appearance.

A-State has completed, is in the process of completing and has committed a combined $60 million in construction and facility renovations since Mohajir's arrival, including stadium lighting and seats at Centennial Bank Stadium.

Also included in the upgrades have been renovations inside the A-State Football Facility and weight rooms, locker rooms and training rooms at both Centennial Bank Stadium and First National Bank Arena, where new seating has also been installed.

Jonesboro, home of Arkansas State University, weighs in as the largest city in Northeast Arkansas. As a matter of fact, if you form a triangle by connecting Little Rock, St. Louis and Memphis, Jonesboro stands out as the largest metropolitan city in what amounts to a 17,000 square mile triangular area.

Jonesboro is a great city of over 70,000, and is always ready to welcome incoming A-State students from the moment they arrive in town. The booming community has matured over the past half century into a regional center for cultural, educational, industrial, commercial, agricultural, communication, transportation, recreational and medical interests. It contains almost every convenience of a big city and every comfort of a small town.

The community is alive with cultural events such as the art exhibitions, theatrical and musical productions, not only on campus but in the city itself through the Jonesboro Fine Arts Council, NEA Foundation of Arts, the Forum and Northeast Arkansas Symphony.

Jonesboro is also the medical hub of northeast Arkansas and southeast Missouri, with two major hospitals and countless medical professionals. The city is also a shopping mecca, offering a modern business district as well as quaint downtown antique shops and restaurants. The $100 million Mall at Turtle Creek recently opened with more than 100 stores.

One of the five largest cities in Arkansas, Jonesboro is located between the vast and fertile Mississippi River and the cultural and scenic richness of the Ozark Mountains. It is nestled about 70 miles west of Memphis, Tennessee, on the gentle slopes of Crowley's Ridge.

Jonesboro is a comfortable one hour drive from Memphis, two hours from Little Rock and four hours from St. Louis. The City and University have meshed resources in recent years and have truly become the "capital" of the northeast quadrant of the state.

Northeast Arkansas is a recreation haven for the person who enjoys water sports, fishing, hunting, and boating as well as the joys of unspoiled nature. Jonesboro and the surrounding area have an abundance of lakes, rivers, ponds, streams and forests to serve as nature's playgrounds for the avid outdoors person.

And, Jonesboro, ranked by Forbes.com as the 27th "best small place to live" is a nice place to call home.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS COMMITTEE

The Intercollegiate Athletics Committee (IAC) was formed in the spring of 1997.

The IAC reviews and makes recommendations on issues involving the welfare of student-athletes, the role of athletics in campus life, and the athletics program's compliance with the university, conference, and NCAA regulations; reviews the role of existing and potential sports program personnel; reviews the athletics budget. The committee reports to the Chancellor.

Membership consists of four students appointed annually by the Student Government Association (one should be a student-athlete); four faculty appointed by the Faculty Senate (staggered two-year terms); one Faculty Athletic Representative appointed by the Chancellor (two-year term); one executive staff member appointed by the Chancellor (two-year term); the Dean of University College; two staff members appointed by the Staff Senate (staggered two-year terms); Student Government Association and Student Activities Board presidents; and representatives from the following external organizations: Alumni Association, Red Wolves Foundation, Lettermen's Club, and the Jonesboro Regional Chamber of Commerce ASU Committee. The Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and the Senior Woman Athletic Administrator serve as ex-officio, nonvoting members. The chancellor appoints a chair at the beginning of each academic year.

PRESIDENT CHARLES L. WELCH

Dr. Charles Welch serves as president of the Arkansas State University System and has emerged as one of the state's leading advocates for higher education.

Dr. Welch was named the second president of the ASU System in November 2010 and officially began his new position in April 2011. He is the youngest person to ever serve as president or chancellor of an Arkansas community college, is the youngest university president in Arkansas, and is one of the youngest college presidents in the United States.

During his tenure, Dr. Welch has hired new chancellors for four of the system's five main campuses. Among the system's major expansion initiatives are the first American-style university campus to be built in Mexico and the planned New York Institute of Technology College of Osteopathic Medicine site in Jonesboro. Under his leadership, the ASU System office was relocated to Little Rock to enhance its statewide exposure and position in higher education leadership at the State Capitol.

Dr. Welch is chairman of the board of the Arkansas Association of Public Universities, as well as co-chair of the executive council of the Arkansas Department of Higher Education. He previously served as president of Henderson State University, chancellor of the University of Arkansas Community College at Hope; vice chancellor for academic affairs at ASU-Beebe; and dean of university studies at Pulaski Technical College. Welch also worked at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock and has served as an instructor of education and political science at three different colleges in Arkansas.

A native of Jonesboro, Ark., Dr. Welch was a first-generation college student and the first member of either side of his extended family to receive a graduate degree. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from the University of Arkansas, where he served as president of the student body. He received a Master of Arts degree in political management from George Washington University and a Doctor of Education degree in higher education from Little Rock.

His experience in the governmental affairs arena includes serving as a White House intern and on the staffs of U.S. Sen. David Pryor and U.S. Rep. Blanche Lincoln.

He is a past president of the Arkansas Association of Two-Year Colleges, is a former board member for the Arkansas Sheriffs' Youth Ranches, and was recently inducted into the Arkansas Boys State Hall of Fame. AY Magazine named Welch as one of the "Powerful Men of 2013," and in 2005, Arkansas Business selected Welch to "40 Under 40," which profiled 40 "intriguing business and political leaders under age 40." He also has been active in the communities where he has worked, serving on a variety of local and regional boards and committees.

Dr. Welch and his wife, Mandy, are the parents of three daughters: Wheatley Grace, Emma Caroline, and Ava Claire.

Kelly Damphousse became Chancellor of Arkansas State University on July 2017 for one simple reason: he wants to do everything in his power to help the next generation of university students in the Mid-South achieve their academic dreams.

A personal touch with students, faculty, staff, alumni, and members of the community has been Damphousse's hallmark throughout his career, and at Arkansas State, has inspired those groups to adopt his "Every Red Wolf Counts" phrase as their operating philosophy. His self-effacing humor and a lifetime spent relating to individuals regardless of the job has endeared him to Arkansas State. Named to the Jonesboro Regional Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors after his arrival, he has also served in official and unofficial capacities with local and regional agencies.

Raised in a small fishing village in northern Canada, Damphousse attended Lethbridge Community College where he earned an associate's degree in law enforcement in 1982. A failed professional hockey tryout foiled one of his two early life ambitions – a career as a goalie in the NHL. His degree was the starting point for his other goal – becoming a Royal Canadian Mounted Police officer. Damphousse likes to say that three years in prison at the Alberta Correctional Service where he served as a correctional officer refocused his dream of becoming a Mountie.

Heading south, Damphousse enrolled at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas, where his life was changed forever. Along with completing his bachelor's degree in criminal justice, specializing in law enforcement and police science in 1987, he met Beth Smith, a College Station native who, in Kelly's words, "neither wanted to marry a cop or a Canadian." After a brief stint as a security manager for Macy's in Atlanta and New Orleans, he returned to school at Texas A&M University where he studied deviant behavior, something with which he was very familiar. His thesis on the cause of youthful involvement in Satanism earned him his master's in sociology in 1991. For his 1994 doctorate, he studied the long-term impact of drug use under Howard Kaplan, the director of the laboratory for the Studies of Social Deviance.

He began his university career as an assistant professor in the Department of Justice Sciences at the University of Alabama at Birmingham in 1994, and then returned to his alma mater of Sam Houston State one year later as an assistant professor in the College of Criminal Justice.

Damphousse moved to the University of Oklahoma in 1997 as member of the Department of Sociology, where he directed several research projects, most notably the "American Terrorism Study" with Brent Smith of the University of Arkansas. He also worked on the Arrestee Drug Abuse Monitoring project in Oklahoma City and Tulsa, and the first-ever field test of voice-stress analysis deception detection software. Damphousse was the principal investigator or co-principal investigator on 42 projects at Oklahoma and Sam Houston State.

The co-author with Smith and Jeffrey Grunewald of the forthcoming 2018 book, Patterns of American Terrorism, Damphousse also served as the co-editor of Social Science Quarterly, volumes 92 through 97. He has authored or co-authored 26 peer-reviewed articles in scholarly publications, 31 book chapters and 20 peer-reviewed technical reports.

Becoming associate dean in 2004, he was appointed the interim dean of CAS at Oklahoma in 2013. Damphousse was made the permanent dean in 2014. As the leader of OU's largest and oldest college, Damphousse led the first college-wide strategic planning exercise as well as assisting faculty and staff in the raising of more than $30 million in private giving.

He is the third permanently appointed Chancellor of Arkansas State, the sixth to hold the title since it was instituted in 2006. Damphousse joins the line of successors to the university's founding leader, V. C. Kays, from 1909 as the 13th chief executive of the institution.

He and Beth have two daughters who are both graduates of Oklahoma. Kayleigh, a 2014 sociology graduate, earned a master's degree at Kansas, and is now the assistant director for retention and persistence at the University of Florida. Kristen, a 2016 biology graduate, recently completed her master's degree in public health at Emory University. The Damphousses are also the proud parents of Maple Leif, a standard poodle and lab mix, who serves as the First Dog of A-State and tweets at @MapleLeifDamp.

Terry Mohajir became the 11th Director of Athletics in A-State history on September 19, 2012, and since that time the Red Wolves have enjoyed unprecedented overall success academically, competitively and financially.

Since being named director of athletics, Mohajir (pronounced MO-HODGE-ER) has adopted an "ALWAYS RISING" slogan as an expansion on the popular "RED WOLVES RISING" campaign. With that theme in mind, the Arkansas State alumnus has instituted sweeping changes, created new policies, produced record-breaking fundraising totals, overseen significant facility upgrades, almost doubled the athletics department budget and implemented creative philosophies that have put the Red Wolves on course to strengthen their national brand. During his watch, the Red Wolves have accomplished numerous firsts in both academics and athletics accomplishments, but the Red Wolves' passionate and energetic leader continues to reinforce his belief that "our accomplishments of today become our expectations of tomorrow."

A-State has claimed 18 conference championships under Mohajir, including four Sun Belt football titles (2012, 2013, 2015 and 2016) and league crowns in volleyball (2015 and 2016), men's indoor (2015 and 2018) and outdoor (2016 and 2018) track and field, women's bowling (2016 and 2018), women's basketball (2014 and 2016), men's basketball (2013), women's indoor (2013) and outdoor (2015) track and field and women's cross country (2013).

Since 2012-13, the Red Wolves have won a league-high 16 Sun Belt titles. The next closest programs over the last six years are UT Arlington and South Alabama with 11 championships each. A-State's 18 total conference championships over the last six years are six more than it won the previous 12 years combined.

Arkansas State had its first female student-athlete ever win an individual national championship and its women's athletics program claimed its highest finish all-time in the Capital One Cup standings, earning two prestigious "Top-50" awards for ranking No. 44 among all NCAA Division I programs during 2013-14 and No. 45 in 2015-16. The No. 44 ranking was the highest ever by a Sun Belt Conference women's program.

The 2013-14 athletics year also saw A-State enjoy its highest ever finish in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup standings, ranking No. 1 in the Sun Belt Conference and No. 83 in the nation among 297 schools. The Red Wolves' finish not only set a school record, it topped the program's previous high of No. 134 set in 1999-2000 by 51 places. A-State posted its second and third highest finishes ever in the standings in 2016-17 and 2015-16, respectively. A-State has led the Sun Belt Conference twice in the standings and finished among the league's top four programs every year under Mohajir.

During Mohajir's tenure, A-State has won four football conference championships with three different head coaches, including Gus Malzahn, Bryan Harsin and Blake Anderson. His hires have been heralded by the national media as some of the best in the country.

Mohajir has responded well with coaching transitions. Carrying out one of his first major acts as athletics director, he appointed an interim head football coach and kept the entire assistant coaching staff in place for the 2013 GoDaddy.com Bowl. The Red Wolves went on to claim their first bowl victory since 1970 and their first win over a top-25 ranked opponent since joining the FBS in 1992. Faced with a head football coaching change following the next season as well, Mohajir guided A-State through the process again by keeping the assistant coaching staff in place and giving the Red Wolves everything needed in order to pick up a second consecutive GoDaddy Bowl win.

Mohajir has successfully guided A-State through coaching changes in other sports as well. He appointed Mike Hagen head men's golf coach prior to the 2015-16 season, and he was promptly named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. Mohajir's most recent hire, Mike Balado, was previously the lead assistant at one of the elite men's basketball programs in the nation in Louisville and is considered one of the top up-and-coming head coaches in the nation. He replaced Mohajir's previous hire, Grant McCasland, who led the Red Wolves to 20 regular-season victories to tie the school record in his lone year with the program.

Six different coaches at A-State since Mohajir's arrival have been named either a Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year or national Coach of the Year a combined 14 times.

The value he places on the student-athlete has been evident, creating the inaugural A-State Awards held at the end of each year to celebrate both their academic and athletic accomplishments. He was behind the development of a student-advisory group that encompasses everything from a student-athlete mentorship program to fostering leadership in the community. The Red Wolves Leadership Academy program (RWLA) was designed with the sole purpose to obtain 100 percent job placement for all the athletics department's student-athletes upon graduation, and that key initiative has been achieved the last four years in a row.

The RWLA continues to strengthen with a new study abroad component added to foster global awareness, which is often cited by employers as a positive attribute they seek. The study abroad program was designed to allow students the ability to make themselves more marketable in the workforce. The summer of 2015 saw Arkansas State student-athletes take part in the first study abroad program offered by any university and their athletics department in the nation. The program goes hand-in-hand with the RWLA's primary purpose to obtain 100 percent job placement for all its graduating student-athletes.

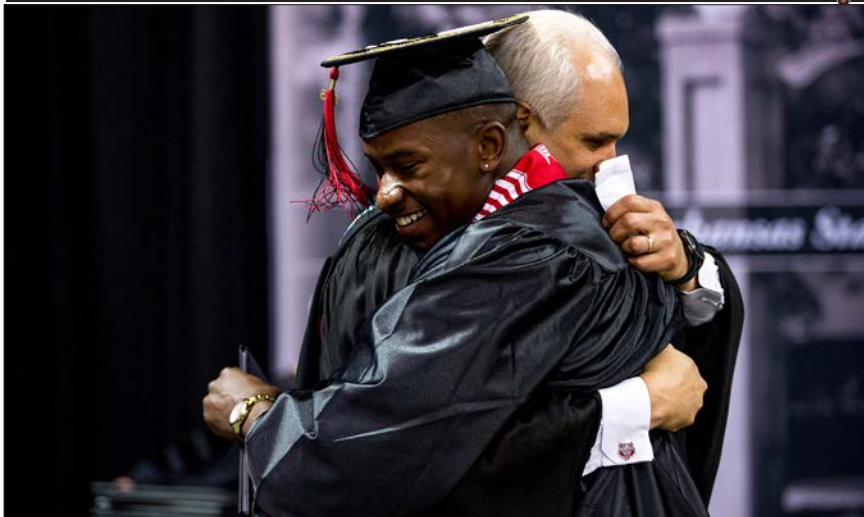

The Red Wolves' academic performance reach an all-time high during record-setting years since 2014-15, each year setting a new school standard for all-department GPA. The most recent 2017-18 academic year saw A-State's all-department GPA rise to 3.100 as a school-record 223 student-athletes made the fall 2017 Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

The program has also increased its Graduation Success Rate (GSR) the last three years under Mohajir. The most recent data announced in 2017 saw A-State produce a school-record 83 percent GSR, topping its previous high of 79 set just one year prior. The Red Wolves continue to increase their Academic Progress Rate (APR) as well with the most recent data reflecting a school-record 971 score.

Additionally, the Red Wolves have made a strong commitment to cost of attendance, appropriating funds for all student-athletes that is in the top 15 percent of all FBS schools.

Mohajir's candid media interviews and engaging public speaking appearances have captivated the Red Wolves fan base, but his actions in a short amount of time have also reflected his vision to take A-State Athletics to new heights.

The primary development arm of A-State Athletics, formerly known as the Red Wolf Club, has been renamed the Red Wolves Foundation and a new logo has been introduced as part of a rebranding effort. The changes have been in conjunction with new and exciting initiatives that have been put in place, designed to make a significant impact on donor relations and fundraising opportunities. The positive results are evident with a 184 percent increase in the foundation's annual fund and premium seating revenue, while capital facilities fundraising is at an all-time high as well.

Another area that has seen dramatic growth under Mohajir is the Lettermen's Club, which has seen membership increase 205 percent since 2012. A-State has also achieved its highest spot ever in the Collegiate Licensing Company's (CLC) rankings and set school records for both football total season ticket sales and season ticket revenue. Not only that, A-State recently ranked 21st among the schools in the Group of 5 conferences in self-generated revenue.

The athletics department's budget increased from $15.3 million in Mohajir's first year to a school-record $43.1 million (FY 2016), representing an increase of 181 percent. A-State Athletics placed among the top 10 programs in the nation in each of the four most recent Excellence in Management Cup standings, which annually reviews the nation's athletics departments in regards to maximizing fiscal resources while providing results in the form of championship victories.

The growth of A-State's brand under Mohajir led to signing a new 10-year agreement in 2016 with Learfield Sports, one of the multimedia industry leaders, which is generating unprecedented revenue in the athletics department's history. Arkansas State, in the fall of 2016, also entered a new seven-year partnership with adidas that is the most lucrative apparel-based contract in school history and makes it an elite adidas program.

Mohajir has made it a point to engage the fan base, stressing the importance of fan experience through avenues such as courtside seating at basketball games, enhancing game-day atmosphere and ensuring that staff go out of their way to extend every fan their assistance. Also among the changes in this area was the installation of a new approximately 1,600 square foot LED Daktronics scoreboard at Centennial Bank Stadium.

Facilities have received a number of facelifts since Mohajir's arrival as well, making sure that the athletic department's "front door" and other sports areas possess a first-class appearance. A-State has completed, is in the process of completing and has committed a combined $80 million in construction and facility renovations since Mohajir's arrival, including stadium lighting and seats at Centennial Bank Stadium, new tennis courts and a new outdoor track. Also included in the upgrades have been renovations and updates inside the A-State Football Facility and with weight rooms, locker rooms and training rooms at both Centennial Bank Stadium and First National Bank Arena, where new seating has been installed.

The Red Wolves Foundation received a $5 million gift commitment from alumnus Johnny Allison for a renovation to its "Centennial Expansion," and it is tied for the largest individual donation in A-State Athletics history. The construction and renovation project to the stadium's press box and west-side concourse covered 40,000 square feet and cost $26 million.

The Red Wolves Foundation received a $5 million contribution from First National Bank in October 2017 in conjunction to naming rights to the facility formerly known as the Convocation Center, and Mohajir oversaw the fundraising efforts for an approximately $29-million football facility project in Centennial Bank Stadium's end zone as well.

Construction on the end zone facility began in December of 2017 following another $5 million commitment by Allison and an additional $5 million contribution from Centennial Bank.

Additionally, a 78,000-square foot Student Activity Center (SAC), which also serves as an indoor practice facility for A-State sports, has been constructed on the north side of Centennial Bank Stadium. The approximate cost was $11 million for construction of the center and the relocation of the soccer complex.

Committed to Title IX and gender-equity initiatives, A-State has worked to improve coaching staff sizes and salaries, operation funding and facilities under Mohajir. Among the upgrades, A-State has completed a new women's soccer and women's tennis facility, which houses both squads' locker rooms, training room and more. A new women's bowling locker room, lounge and pro shop have also been constructed.

His philosophies on scheduling have been well documented, and they have resulted in home-and-home games with nationally-prominent programs such as Missouri and Miami for the first time in A-State history. He has capitalized on the Red Wolves recent success by gaining additional games against teams such as Southern Cal, making A-State the first Sun Belt program to schedule a football contest against the Trojans. In 2020, the Red Wolves will become just the second SBC team to play Michigan.

Mohajir was appointed as the Sun Belt Conference's representative on the inaugural College Football Playoff Athletic Director's Advisory Board, acting as one of 10 athletics directors from FBS conferences on the board. He was also asked to serve on the NCAA Division I Championships Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee. Mohajir was one of six athletics directors appointed to the NCAA Division I Football Ad Hoc Recruiting Working Group, which was formed to conduct a comprehensive review of Division I football recruiting legislation.

He was most recently appointed Chairman of the Sun Belt Conference AD's Committee and, additionally, he was invited to be a guest panelist at the prestigious Knight Commission public meeting in May 2017 at the National Press Club.

Mohajir continues to evaluate and process information to complete a national-branding campaign, but has already started building a strong foundation for the future of A-State Athletics.

Mohajir's career path went through three other NCAA Division I institutions, including the University of Missouri-Kansas City, Florida Atlantic and Kansas, before leading him back to his alma mater.

Mohajir's wealth of experience, history of success working with a university in A-State's current conference and his noted accomplishments at a BCS automatic qualifying school made him a clear choice to take over the reins at Arkansas State.

Mohajir has gained national respect in collegiate athletics while working with some of the finest administrators and coaches in the country, such as former FAU, Louisville, Miami and Oklahoma head football coach Howard Schnellenberger.

The Overland Park, Kansas native has been involved with major fundraising campaigns at multiple universities, while also overseeing corporate sales, marketing promotions and ticket sales. Prior to A-State, he most recently served 16 months as Kansas' Senior Associate Director of Athletics and Chief Marketing Officer. Prior to his time with the Jayhawks, he spent a seven-year stint as Florida Atlantic's Senior Associate Director of Athletics for External Relations from 2004-11 after working at UMKC from 1997-2004 as its Assistant Director of Athletics for External Relations.

Mohajir worked at Kansas in a variety of capacities during two different stints, but his latest stop in Lawrence saw him assume responsibility for the Williams Education Fund that totaled over $22 million in revenue for the fiscal year 2012. He supervised the athletics department's areas that generated over $40 million in revenue. In addition, Mohajir oversaw Kansas' multimedia rights partnership for IMG. His most recent role as Chief Marketing Officer was heavily focused on the market strategies for the proposed football stadium renovations.

Mohajir went to Kansas from his position at Florida Atlantic, where he oversaw development, marketing, ticket sales, corporate sales and the media relations department. Foremost among his responsibilities was a fundraising campaign for a $70 million on-campus football stadium. His astute project management helped the Owls' football program reach the 2007 New Orleans Bowl in just its fourth year as an FBS program, an NCAA record for the fastest start-up program to go to a bowl game. During his tenure, FAU's athletics department enhanced its major gift program 800 percent, Owl Club giving increased 400 percent and special-events revenue increased 150 percent.

Mohajir's original connection to KU dated back to the early 1990's, when he was a graduate assistant, an assistant offensive line coach and game-day special team's football coach for the Jayhawks (1993-96). He left Kansas in 1997 but didn't go far, staying in the Kansas City area to take over his administrative position with the newly-created Division I UMKC Athletics program. There he supervised marketing and promotions, sports information, fundraising, radio and TV contracts, corporate sales, tickets, event operations, sports medicine, strength and conditioning and men's soccer.

Under his leadership, the Kangaroos saw dramatic increases in endowment, sponsorships, ticket revenue and its donor base. One of his more visible accomplishments at UMKC was the fundraising and construction efforts for a new training room and strength and conditioning center.

During his time as an assistant coach at Kansas, Mohajir was on the staff that beat UCLA in the 1995 Aloha Bowl and had a final ranking of No. 9 in the AP poll. He was also a football ticket sales and promotions account executive for Kansas Athletics and earned a master's degree in sports management at KU in 1997.

Mohajir graduated from Arkansas State University with a major in sports management and a minor in business marketing in 1993. He was a starting safety on A-State's football team.

Mohajir is married to the former Julie Hammond and they have two daughters, Maria (17) and Molly (15), and son, Marco (10).

ATHLETICS MEDIA RELATIONS

FACILITIES: Media facilities in First National Bank Arena consist of an area at floor level on the east side of the court for reporters, broadcasters and photographers, as well as a television-film booth located high on the east side of the arena. There is also a Media Room located on the west side open to the press before, during and after games. Admittance to these areas is by special credential issued only by the A-State Athletics Media Relations Office.

CREDENTIALS: Credentials for home games are provided to those members of the media who are covering the game in a full working capacity. Requests with names should be submitted in writing on company letterhead. Passes will be mailed to valid applicants as long as time permits; otherwise, passes may be claimed at the Media Entrance on the east side of the arena (Lower Green Entrance). Spouses, dates, children and non-workers are NOT permitted in the media areas. Passes must be displayed at all times, and A-State reserves the right to revoke passes and privileges at any time due to misrepresentation or misconduct. Requests for road game credentials may be made through the A-State Media Relations Women's Basketball SID (Chris Graddy).

PARKING: A limited number of parking spaces are available to members of the media on a paved lot adjacent to the Media Entrance (Lower Green Entrance) on the east side of the arena, Lot "A". Display a parking pass to the working attendant for admittance. Parking is on a first-come, first-serve basis. All parking pass requests should be made to the Athletics Media Relations Office.

ENTRY: Media representatives with proper A-State issued credentials will be allowed entrance ONLY at the Media Entrance (Lower Green Entrance) on the east side of First National Bank Arena. This is also the main entry to the athletics offices and is adjacent to the Media parking area.

GAME SERVICES: Programs, notes, reference guides, statistical packets, and live statistics (Stat Broadcast) are provided. Complimentary light refreshments and food will be available before and throughout the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are not allowed to shoot from in front of the team benches nor from the catwalk above the floor (for security, insurance and safety reasons). Along the end lines, photographers must stay behind the broken line and clear from the free throw lane. Credentials are required to shoot from court-side.
