collegiate assistant coach. He coached in the Chik-Fil-A Bowl as part of Auburn's staff, and will be at the GoDaddy.com Bowl in a capacity to be determined.

INTERIM HEAD COACH DAVID GUNN: David Gunn, now in his 10th season as an assistant coach at Arkansas State, was named the Interim Head Coach by ASU Director of Athletics Dr. Dean Lee on Dec. 5 after former head coach Hugh Freeze accepted the same position at Ole Miss. Gunn served as ASU's running backs coach his first 10 seasons at the school, and he has been instrumental in the Red Wolves' in-state recruiting efforts since his arrival in 2002. He was also named Director of Player Development for the 2011 season. Over the last 10 seasons, Gunn has coached three All-Sun Belt Conference selections and two of the Red Wolves' top three all-time leading rushers. Under Gunn's watch, ASU has had a running back named the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year and the league's Freshman of the Year.

GODADDY.COM BOWL: Arkansas State accepted an official invitation to the GoDaddy.com Bowl following its victory over Middle Tennessee on Nov. 19, placing the Red Wolves in a bowl game for the first time since 2005 when they played Southern Miss in the New Orleans Bowl in Lafayette, La. ASU was bowl eligible for the first time since 2008, but for the fourth time over the last seven seasons. ASU reached bowl eligibility after just eight games, making this year the earliest ASU has ever been bowl eligible as an FBS member (since 1992).

SUN BELT CHAMPIONS: Arkansas State claimed its first ever outright Sun Belt Conference championship this season. Including 2011, Arkansas State has won eight conference championships all-time. ASU won the Southland Conference seven times (1986, 1985, 1978, 1975, 1970, 1969, 1968). ASU also won the 2005 Sun Belt Conference championship, but it was later vacated due to NCAA sanctions.

THE ARKANSAS STATE-NORTHERN ILLINOIS SERIES: The GoDaddy.com Bowl will mark the eighth all-time meeting between ASU and NIU, with the Huskies holding a 6-1 advantage in the series. The two teams played all seven games between 1990 and 1996, including three as Big West Conference opponents between 1993 and 1995. A-State's lone victory in the series came 28-21 in 1995, while Northern Illinois picked up a 31-30 victory in the last meeting in 1996.

A-STATE vs. MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE: Arkansas State has played seven current members of the Mid-American Conference, holding a combined 6-13 record against Akron, Bowling Green, Central Michigan, Eastern Michigan, Northern Illinois, Toledo and Western Michigan. ASU holds at least one victory against all those teams with the exception of Bowling Green (0-1), and Toledo (0-2). A-State's most victories against a current MAC team is two versus Eastern Michigan, while it has played Northern Illinois (7 games) more times than any other MAC team. ASU's first ever game against a current MAC team was played in 1967 against Western Michigan and its last game was in 1996 versus Northern Illinois.

ON THIS DATE: Arkansas State is playing just its third game ever in the month of January and its first ever on Jan. 8. ASU played in the Tangerine Bowl (now the Capital One Bowl) in Orlando, Fla., twice on Jan. 1, tying East Texas State (now Texas A&M-Commerce) 7-7 in 1954 and falling 34-19 to Western Kentucky in 1952.

BOWL HISTORY: Not including the GoDaddy.com Bowl, Arkansas State has played in eight bowl games all-time and holds a 2-5-1 record in those contests. ASU dropped a 31-19 decision against Southern Miss in the 2005 New Orleans Bowl, which was the first time since 1970 that the Red Wolves played in a bowl game. A-State played in seven bowl games from 1951-70, including the Pecan Bowl (1970, 1969, 1968), Tangerine Bowl (1954, 1952) and Refrigerator Bowl (1952, 1951). The Tangerine Bowl was played in Orlando, Fla. and is now known as the Capital One Bowl. The Pecan Bowl was played in Arlington, Texas, and the Refrigerator Bowl in Evansville, Ind.

IN THE POLLS: Arkansas State is No. 30 in the CBSSports.com 120 rankings. The Red Wolves are also No. 35 in the latest BCS rankings. Additionally, A-State is receiving votes in the USA Today Top 25 Coaches Poll (9 votes) and AP Top 25 Poll (18 votes) for the first time in its history as an NCAA FBS member (since 1992).

AN A-STATE VICTORY WOULD . . .: Give the Red Wolves their third all-time bowl victory and their first since 1970 . . . Give the Red Wolves 11 victories to tie the second most in school history and mark the fourth time to ever post at least 11 wins in a season . . . Make the Red Wolves the first team in Sun Belt history to ever win 11 games in a season . . . Give the Red Wolves 10 consecutive wins to extend the third longest winning streak in school history . . . Give the Red Wolves 7 more victories than it had last season and give them a win differential of 6.5, which would currently tie the largest differential in NCAA history.

MOST WINS AS AN FBS MEMBER: Arkansas State has recorded its most victories ever as an FBS member with 10, topping the previous best of six wins in 1995, 2002, 2005, 2006 and 2008. The last time the Red Wolves won 10 games at any level was 1986 when it posted a 12-2-1 record and finished as the NCAA I-AA runner-up. A-State's 10 victories ties the fourth most in school history. ASU had 10 victories in 1951, 11 in 1970 and 1975 and 12 in 1986.

ON A ROLL: ASU has won nine consecutive games for the first time since 1975 when it posted and 11-0 record. The Red Wolves' nine-game winning streak is the second longest in the nation behind only LSU (14). ASU's nine-game winning streak is the third longest in school history behind 16 from 1969-71 and 15 from 1974-76.

UNDEFEATED IN CONFERENCE: Arkansas State is just the third school in Sun Belt Conference history to ever go undefeated in league play. The only other schools to accomplish the feat were Troy in 2009 (8-0) and North Texas in 2004 (7-0), 2003 (7-0) and 2002 (6-0). While 2011 marks the first time ASU has ever gone undefeated in Sun Belt play, it also went undefeated against Southland Conference competition six times, including 1964 (2-0-2), 1968 (3-0-1), 1969 (4-0), 1970 (4-0), 1975 (5-0) and 1986 (5-0).

CONFERENCE WINNING STREAK: Arkansas State's eight-game conference winning streak is its longest since the 1985-86 seasons when it won 10 in a row as a member of the Southland Conference. The Red Wolves' conference winning streak is also currently tied for the third longest in the nation with Northern Illinois. TCU has a 24-game conference winning streak and LSU has won nine straight league games.

TOP TURNAROUNDS: Arkansas State currently holds the nation's second highest turnaround in wins, posting

10 this year after finishing 2010 with four. The Red Wolves are 6 games improved, which is the second most in the nation. Houston leads the nation in both win differential (7) and games improved (6.5). With a victory over Northern Illinois, ASU would end the season with a 6.5 win differential to tie what is currently the biggest ever in NCAA football (currently 14 all-time teams have posted 6.5).

Frampton is the only player in ASU history to record 60+ receptions in two different seasons (90 in 2011 and 69 in 2010). Frampton also broke the school record for single-season receiving yards this year, completing the regular season with 1,125 yards to his credit.

THREE OVER 100: Senior WR Dwayne Frampton has posted five 100-yard receiving games, including a career-high 153 against Troy last game. Three games were played consecutively against UCA (100), WKU (126) and ULM. Frampton also had 99 receiving yards in the season opener at Illinois and 141 against Middle Tennessee. For the entire year, he is ranked 11th in the nation in receptions (7.5 pg) and 18th in receiving yards (93.8 ypg). Frampton was on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List.

1,000 YARD CLUB: Junior wide receiver Taylor Stockemer and senior receiver Dwayne Frampton both went over 1,000 receiving yards for their careers this season. Stockemer accomplished the feat during the Virginia Tech game and Frampton against UCA. Frampton has a team-high 1,863 yards to rank 3rd in school history, while Stockemer has posted 1,478 yards to rank seventh.

FRAMPTON EXTENDS STREAK: Senior wide receiver Dwayne Frampton caught 10 passes last game against Troy, extending his streak of consecutive games with at least one reception to 24. He has caught a pass in every game he has played at A-State. Frampton is ranked 11th in the nation in receptions (7.5 rpg).

MANNING AWARD STAR OF THE WEEK: Following his performance in Arkansas State's 47-3 victory over Memphis, quarterback Ryan Aplin was selected as one of eight quarterbacks from across the nation to be named to the Manning Award Stars of the Week list. Aplin completed 19-of-21 passes for 274 yards and three touchdowns in the victory over the Tigers. His completion rate of 90.5% was the second highest in school and Sun Belt Conference history.

JARBOE PUTS UP BIG NUMBERS: Josh Jarboe hauled in seven passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns in the Red Wolves' 47-3 victory over Memphis earlier this season. Jarboe's 162 receiving yards rank as the 10th-best single game performance all-time at ASU. His 162-yard performance was also the best by an ASU player since 1999.

RIMINGTON AWARD WATCH LIST: Senior center Tom Castilaw is on the 2011 Rimington Award Watch List issued annually to the nation's top center, making him the second ASU player to ever earn the preseason recognition. Tanner Jenkins was also on the list in 2006.

BILETNIKOFF AWARD WATCH LIST: Senior wide receiver Dwayne Frampton and junior wide receiver Josh Jarboe were the first players in school history to ever be named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List for the nation's top receiver.

CAREER DAY: Senior DE Brandon Joiner tied an Arkansas State and Sun Belt Conference record with four sacks against Louisiana-Lafayette, and he also tied his personal career high with a team-best eight tackles. Joiner became the third ASU player and seventh Sun Belt player to ever post four sacks in a game. His four sacks total ties the most in the nation this season, joining six other players to post four in a game. Joiner recorded a career-high 4.5 tackles for loss and a quarterback hurry as well. Joiner has now posted at least a partial sack in all but two games this year, and his 12 total on the season gives him the second most in ASU history and ties him for the second most in Sun Belt history.

APPROACHING MILESTONES: Sophomore kicker Brian Davis needs seven points to break the school record for points by kicking (96) in a single season. Senior defensive end Brandon Joiner needs two sacks to tie the school record (14) and break the Sun Belt Conference record (13).

SCORING DEFENSE: The Arkansas State defense has held six opponents under 20 points, including five of the last seven, this season. This year marked the first time since 1987 ASU held three consecutive opponents under 20 points. The last time A-State held six opponents to less than 20 points over the course of an entire season was 2002 and seven opponents was 1986. ASU is No. 14 in the nation and No. 1 in the Sun Belt Conference in scoring defense (19.3 ppg).

STINGY DEFENSE: The ASU defense has held five opponents under 300 yards total offense, including four of the last six, and eight under 350 yards. The last time ASU held eight teams under 350 yards of total offense was 2008. ASU is ranked No. 20 in the nation in total defense.

HOLDING THEIR GROUND: The ASU defense has allowed just 4.6 yards per play this season, which is the fifth lowest average in Sun Belt history. The Red Wolves have also allowed just 28 touchdowns, which rank as the third fewest in league history. Additionally, its 19.3 points surrendered per game is the fourth lowest average in Sun Belt history.

FORCING TURNOVERS: While Arkansas State's 28 total turnovers gained for the entire season are just two more than the next closest team in the Sun Belt, its 23 gained in league games are five more than the next closest. ASU has 18 interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries this year.

STOPPING THE RUN: The ASU defense is currently allowing just 3.1 yards per rush and 107.2 rushing yards per game, which would rank tied for the third lowest and second lowest averages, respectively, in Sun Belt history if the season ended today. The Red Wolves have allowed only one 100-yard rusher this year and are ranked No. 13 in the nation in rushing defense.

PICK IT OFF: While the Red Wolves didn't record an interception in either of their first two games, they've now posted a combined 18 over the last 10 to climb to rank tied for 8th in the nation. Darryl Feemster has a team-high five interceptions and Kelcie McCray follows with 4 over that span. Darron Edwards has 3 and Qushaun Lee has 2, while Sterling Young, Justin Robertson and Demario Davis all have 1. ASU has recorded at least one interception in nine of the last 10 games.

YOUNG STEPPING UP: Since joining the starting lineup five games ago, redshirt freshman safety Sterling Young has averaged 7.0 tackles per game and recorded a team-best 35 total tackles. He posted a career-high 10 tackles against FAU to lead the ASU defense.

PLAYING BEHIND THE LINE OF SCRIMMAGE: Arkansas State is ranked among the national leaders in both tackles for loss and sacks this season. The Red Wolves are No. 15 in the nation and No. 2 in the SBC in sacks (2.8 per game) and No. 11 in the nation and No. 1 in the SBC in tackles for loss (7.7 per game). With two games left, ASU already has its most sacks (31) and tackles for loss (84) since 2002.

GETTING TO THE QUARTERBACK: Dating back to last season, senior defensive end Brandon Joiner has recorded at least a partial sack in 14 of ASU's last 17 games. In fact, 15.5 of his 16.0 career sacks at A-State have come over the Red Wolves last 17 games. He has at least a partial sack in nine of ASU's first 12 games this season.

LOMBARDI AWARD WATCH LIST: Senior linebacker Demario Davis is the fifth player in school to be named to the Lombardi Award Watch List, issued to the top college lineman at the end of the season. Davis, a 2010 First Team All-Sun Belt choice, joins Alex Carrington (2009), Matt Mandich (2008), Tanner Jenkins (2006) and Garry Johnson (2001 and 2002) as A-State players that have been named to the award's watch list.

DAVIS HONORED: After breaking the ASU and Sun Belt Conference records for both field goals made in a game (6) and points scored by kick (23) during the Red Wolves' game against Central Arkansas, sophomore kicker Brian Davis received numerous honors. Davis, who was only one field goal and one point shy tying NCAA records, was named a Lou Groza Star of the Week, the Sun Belt Conference Special Teams Player of the Week and the College Football Performance Awards' National Placekicker of the Week. Davis was a perfect 6-of-6 on his field goal attempts and 5-of-5 on his extra point attempts.

FIRST TIME IN OVER A DECADE, BUT TWICE IN 2011: Arkansas State returned a blocked punt for a TD during the ULM game for the first time since 2000 (Sean Mitchell block and Danny Smith return against Richmond). Junior DB Don Jones blocked his first career punt and also returned it for a touchdown. It was ASU's first special teams score since Kevin Jones returned a punt for a TD against Memphis in 2007. The Red Wolves came back to block another punt in its regular-season finale against Troy that Jones returned for a touchdown.

DIALING IT UP FROM LONG DISTANCE: Sophomore kicker Bobby Zalud kicked a career-best 56 yard field goal against Memphis that tied the third longest in school history and in the NCAA this season. His 56-yard field goal is also the second longest in Sun Belt Conference history behind only a 57-yard make by North Texas' Jason Ball in 2001. Zalud also had a 53-yard field goal against Troy and 49-yard field goals against Illinois and FIU. He is now 6-of-9 on his field goal attempts this year with all six makes coming from over 40 yards.

NEARING A SCORING RECORD: Sophomore kicker Brian Davis has scored 90 points by kicking this year, the second most in school history and just six shy of the school record. He has made 16 field goals this year that are the fourth most in school history and his 42 extra points made are just one short of the ASU record.

Arkansas State Director of Athletics Dr. Dean Lee announced at a Dec. 14 press conference that Gus Malzahn has been named the Red Wolves' 28th head football coach, bringing him back to his home state after most recently enjoying highly successful stints as a top assistant coach at three NCAA FBS universities that garnered national acclaim.

A name highly recognized throughout Arkansas and the nation, Malzahn comes to Arkansas State after serving as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Auburn for the past three seasons. A native of Fort Smith, Malzahn was named the winner of the 2010 Frank Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top collegiate assistant coach.

"The things I appreciate and the things I look at in the hiring process is that we want to hire a man of character, a man of integrity and a man of honor, and Coach Malzahn has all of those qualities and many more," said Lee. "He is going to do so many things outside of football for our student-athletes, and I know he shares a pride in the quality and substance of our student-athletes."

"This is a program on the rise, and when I initially talked with Dr. Lee discussing his vision of where this program is heading, that is when I knew that this was the place for me. I told the team to buckle up because we are about to take this thing to the next level."

His innovative offense made an immediate and profound impact during his tenure at Auburn, highlighted by a record-setting offense in 2010 when the Tigers finished 14-0 and claimed the school's first national championship since 1957. The Auburn offense set nine school records, including points in a season (577), points per game (41.2), total yards (6,989), total offense (499.2), rushing yards (3,987), rushing touchdowns (41) and passing touchdowns (31). Malzahn's record-setting offense in 2010 led the Southeastern Conference and finished in the top 10 nationally in six statistical categories.

He coached Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton during the Tigers run to the 2011 BCS National Championship. Under Malzahn's direction, Newton later became the overall No. 1 pick in the 2011 NFL Draft after producing one of the best single-season quarterback performances in collegiate history. Newton threw for 2,908 yards and 30 touchdowns, while rushing for 1,586 yards and an additional 20 touchdowns as Auburn finished 14-0 and defeated Oregon 22-19 in the BCS title game.

Newton also won the school's first-ever Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award, given to the nation's top quarterback. He also claimed the Maxwell Award presented annually to college football's top player, while also earning Associated Press National Player of the Year and SEC

Offensive Player of the Year awards.

He helped lead the Tigers to a 7-5 record this season, which will include an appearance in the Chick-fil-A Bowl on Dec. 31. The Malzahn-led Auburn offense had four players named to the All-SEC Team, including sophomore running back Michael Dyer, junior tight end Philip Lutzenkirchen, senior offensive lineman Brandon Mosley and junior running back Onterio McCalebb.

Malzahn's arrival in 2009 and style of offense marked a drastic turnaround from the 2008 season when Auburn struggled offensively. In a two-year period, the Tigers improved from a tie for 110th to 7th in the nation in scoring offense (from 17.3 to 41.2) and from 104th to 7th in total offense. It also took Auburn just six games in 2009 to score more points than it did in all 12 games in 2008.

Before coaching at Auburn, Malzahn spent two seasons at Tulsa, coordinating a Golden Hurricane offense that finished first nationally in total offense in 2007 and 2008. Tulsa's offense in 2007 established nine team school records and 12 individual records. The Hurricane also set nine Conference USA team records, while Tulsa quarterback Paul Smith broke an NCAA record by throwing for at least 300 yards in 14 consecutive games.

Prior to his time at Tulsa, he coached one season at Arkansas, where he served as offensive coordinator, coached Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden and helped the Razorbacks finish fourth nationally in rushing offense at 228.5 yards per game. In fact, two of Malzahn's first three collegiate offenses ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing, including the 2008 Tulsa team and 2006 Arkansas squad.

In 14 seasons as a high school head coach, Malzahn led seven teams to the state championship game and won three titles. Malzahn coached two quarterbacks, Josh Floyd and Rhett Lashlee, who set national passing records. Malzahn also tutored 2005 Gatorade, Parade Magazine and Rivals.com National Player of the Year Mitch Mustain at Springdale High School.

Malzahn is married to the former Kristi Otwell and they are the parents of two daughters, Kylie (22) and Kenzie (18).

David Gunn, now in his 10th season as an assistant coach at Arkansas State, was named the Interim Head Coach by ASU Director of Athletics Dr. Dean Lee on Dec. 5 after former head coach Hugh Freeze accepted the same position at Ole Miss.

“David Gunn has been here for 10 seasons,” Lee said. “He is a man of integrity, he is a man of character – just an outstanding person that I know can take this responsibility and be very positive as we go through the transition process and will do an outstanding job. I just can’t say enough about the respect and admiration I have for David Gunn and what he means to our program.”

“We have a team and we have a group of young men that believe in one another, and they believe in this coaching staff,” Gunn said after his appointment to interim head coach. “That’s what we’re going to build upon and that’s what we’re going to continue to trust in as we move forward.”

Gunn served as ASU’s running backs coach his first 10 seasons at the school, and he has been instrumental in the Red Wolves’ in-state recruiting efforts since his arrival in 2002. He was also named Director of Player Development for the 2011 season.

Over the last 10 seasons, Gunn has coached three All-Sun Belt Conference selections and two of the Red Wolves’ top three all-time leading rushers. Under Gunn’s watch, ASU has had a running back named the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year and the league’s Freshman of the Year.

Since arriving at ASU in January 2002, Gunn has overseen some powerful performances coming out of the A-State backfield. ASU’s most recent back to attack the ASU record books is Derek Lawson, a senior who is currently ranked 13th in career rushing yards and needs just 92 yards to become the 12th player in school history to rush for 2,000 yards.

Arnold, A-State’s featured back from 2006-09, was listed as a Doak Walker Award candidate entering the 2007, 2008 and 2009 seasons. Arnold entered his senior year as the third leading active rusher in the NCAA and finished his career as ASU’s second all-time leader in total rushing yards and tied for second in rushing touchdowns. Arnold piled up numerous awards, including All-Sun Belt Conference honors three times.

Gunn’s first season featured Danny Smith, who broke ASU’s all-time rushing record which had stood for 50 years. Gunn proudly watched Smith receive Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year Honors. A unanimous pick for first-team all-conference, Smith ended up scoring 14 touchdowns while picking up 1,390 yards.

Then, Antonio Warren and Shermar Bracey churned out extraordinary rushing totals and signed contracts with teams in the National Football League. In fact, Warren finished his career as ASU’s third all-time leading rusher with 3,040 yards.

Prior to joining the ASU staff, Gunn served as the head coach for Little Rock McClellan High School and took his team to the 2001 AAAAA playoffs. Gunn was the head coach at McClellan for five seasons (1996-2001), taking the Crimson Tide to the playoffs twice.

Prior to that, he served as the boys head track coach at Watson Chapel High School in Pine Bluff. While at Watson Chapel from 1991-95, he also served as the running backs and defensive backs coach and helped that team go to the AAA playoffs three straight years and won the 1996 state championship.

That was the second stop at Watson Chapel for Gunn, who began his career as the linebackers and wide receivers coach from 1987-89.

Gunn, a native of England, Ark., who excelled in football, basketball and track at England High School, has also coached at Lake Highlands High School in Dallas, Texas, where he coached running backs and helped his team to a 1990 conference title.

After graduating from England High School in 1982, he attended the University of Arkansas, where he played defensive back and running back from 1982-87.

As a Razorback player, he played in the 1984 Liberty Bowl and the 1987 Orange Bowl. He graduated in 1987 with a bachelor’s degree in physical education and biological science.

Gunn is married to the former Aleachia Stephenson of England, and they have two daughters – 27-year-old Tiffany, a second year Law student at Arkansas, and 19-year-old Bethany is a sophomore at ASU.

GAME 5

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Arkansas State running back Derek Lawson's one-yard touchdown plunge with 43 seconds remaining capped a wild fourth quarter and lifted the Red Wolves to a 26-22 victory over the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers at Houchens Industries-L.T. Smith Stadium in the Sun Belt Conference opener for both teams.

Lawson's touchdown put the finishing touch on a nine-play, 66-yard drive that seemed improbable after WKU appeared to have picked up a first down at the ASU 31 with just under three minutes remaining in the game.

From there, quarterback Ryan Aplin directed a nine-play drive, completing five passes on the possession. Aplin found wide receiver Dwayne Frampton for a first down at the WKU one, and on the next play, Lawson crossed the goal line for what proved to be the winning score.

Aplin finished the night 37-of-49 for 396 yards and a touchdown. His 37 completions set a new ASU record. He completed passes to eight different receivers on the night, led by Frampton with 126 yards and Jarboe with 112. Senior safety A.J. Hills recorded a career-high 11 tackles to lead the ASU defense.

*Game moved to Lafayette, La. due to Hurricane Katrina

Arkansas State	0	10	9	0	—	19
Southern Mississippi	0	10	14	7	—	31

HIGHLIGHTS: The game's score was knotted throughout the third quarter until USM QB Dustin Almond connected on a 29-yard touchdown pass to Shawn Nelson late in the third quarter and another six-yard score to Nelson in the fourth to seal the win for the Golden Eagles. The Indians scored on a 44-yard field goal by Eric Neihouse, a Nick Noce four-year run, a two-yard pass from Noce to tight end Manuel Burton and a safety.

1987 DIVISION I-AA PLAYOFFS QUARTERFINALS
December 5 at Cedar Falls, Iowa (Crowd: 6,100)

Arkansas State	7	7	14	0	—	28
Northern Iowa	6	15	7	21	—	49

HIGHLIGHTS: Northern Iowa cashed in four lost ASU fumbles—three into touchdowns—while amassing 530 yards of offense in a game closer than the score indicates. Carl Boyd was all over the place for the Panthers, collecting 124 ground yards and catching several drive-saving passes. It was a see-saw affair for awhile, with A-State's last lead at 28-21 late in the third quarter. UNI dominated in the fourth quarter, as A-State miscues handed the Panthers two easy scores.

1987 DIVISION I-AA PLAYOFFS (FIRST ROUND)
November 28 at Jackson, Miss. (Crowd: 7,500)

Arkansas State	0	0	14	21	—	35
Jackson State	10	0	7	15	—	32

HIGHLIGHTS: A wild finish, including five second-half touchdowns (in seven total possessions), lifted the Indians, who had fumbled away three chances in the opening stages. In that almost swap-out second half, ASU scored on a 62-yard ground-based drive, a 35-yard pass (Dwane Brown to Fred Barnett), an 11-yard end-around (Barnett) to culminate a 75-yard drive, a 30-yard guard-around (Kenneth Nelson) to end a 52-yard drive and a 62-yard interception return (Stacey McGee). ASU collected 306 yards on the ground; JSU managed 283 of its 397 through the air.

1986 DIVISION I-AA CHAMPIONSHIP

December 19 at Tacoma, Wash. (Crowd: 4,419)

Arkansas State	7	0	8	6	—	21
Georgia Southern	10	16	15	7	—	48

HIGHLIGHTS: Tracy Ham was too much for A-State on the artificial turf in the Tacoma Dome. He rushed for 180 yards and passed for 306 in one of the greatest quarterbacking exhibitions ever against an Indian team. The defending national champ Eagles averaged 7.5 yards per play and controlled the ball nearly 36 minutes. ASU fumbled on the second play of the game, and GSU converted that miscue into a TD. The rest was all downhill for the Eagles, who scored on all six of their first-half possessions. Fullback Richard Kimble of ASU had 134 yards rushing.

1986 DIVISION I-AA SEMIFINALS

December 13 at Jonesboro (Crowd: 10,500)

Eastern Kentucky	0	7	3	0	—	10
Arkansas State	7	7	7	3	—	24

HIGHLIGHTS: Defense was the key for ASU, which forced six turnovers, allowed only two third-down conversions, notched three sacks and stopped the Colonels five times inside the Indian 30. Linebacker Dan Miller led the way with 14 tackles, 2 interceptions and 2 tipped passes. Despite fumbling on the first play, Richard Kimble netted 95 yards rushing (filling in for the injured Rickey Jemison). EKU's only TD came after an A-State fumble.

1986 DIVISION I-AA QUARTERFINALS

December 6 at Newark, Del. (Crowd: 12,018)

Delaware	7	7	0	0	—	14

HIGHLIGHTS: Fullback Rickey Jemison rushed for a career-high 159 yards and scored two touchdowns as ASU accumulated 646 yards of offense (526 on the ground) while averaging 8.1 yards per play. Delaware collected 421 yards but had trouble scoring in what was the worst home defeat (41 points) in Blue Hen history.

November 29 at Jonesboro (Crowd: 4,500)

Sam Houston State	7	0	0	0	—	7

HIGHLIGHTS: A-State scored on eight of its first 11 possessions and was never headed. The Bearkats couldn't match a wish-bone which totaled 594 yards. Fullback Rickey Jemison led the way with 157 on the ground, but the ASU defense did a number, too, limiting SHSU to only three drives longer than 17 yards.

December 7 at Reno, Nev. (Crowd: 10,241)

Nevada-Reno	0	7	17	0	—	24

HIGHLIGHTS: A couple of muffed field goal chances in the closing seconds prevented ASU from overcoming a 24-10 deficit in a blizzard. The Indians, who led, 10-7, at halftime, also fumbled away an opportunity on the six and missed an extra point and 48-yard field goal—all in the final quarter. A 17-point third period was the difference for UNR, which posted its eighth straight win. Quarterback Eric Beavers threw 49-yard (to Calvin Sailes) and 15-yard (to Thai Ivery) TD passes, and Marty Zendejas kicked a 46-yarder in that decisive quarter. ASU, which had the ball 37 minutes and totaled 407 yards and 23 first downs, had 84 rushing yards from Rickey Jemison and 95 passing yards from Dwane Brown.

November 30 at Jonesboro (Crowd: 8,730)

Grambling	0	0	0	7	—	7

HIGHLIGHTS: Frank Richards' 25-yard field goal with five seconds left was the margin of difference on muddy turf. The Indians maintained the ball for 37 minutes and tallied 27 first downs but had trouble crossing the goal line. Rickey Jemison scored the only ASU TD on a one-yard plunge in the second quarter after Ray Brown's guard-around play moved the ball 25 yards to the one. Jemison had 94 yards on 28 carries, and Dwane Brown threw for 114 yards. ASU's defense limited Grambling to six first downs and 154 total yards.

Montana State	0	7	7	17	—	31

HIGHLIGHTS: Sophomore Kelly Bradley passed for three touchdowns to rally MSU to a come-from-behind triumph. Bradley completed 27 of 47 passes for 313 yards, including TD tosses of 6 and 12 yards to Dasin Dietrich. ASU's only scores came on 25-yard and 45-yard interception returns by strong safety Billy Ray Bowers. Fullback Rickey Jemison had 100 rushing yards on 21 carries, but the Indians suffered from five lost fumbles and an interception on the frozen turf.

November 24 at Jonesboro (Crowd: 10,872)

Tennessee-Chattanooga	0	3	0	7	—	10

HIGHLIGHTS: Two flashy scores in the final 24 seconds of the first half propelled the Indians to success—a 24-yard guard-around run by Farrell Wilson and a 57-yard interception return by I.J. Chapman. The Indians kept the ball for over 36 minutes while rolling up a 30-3 lead after three quarters. Rickey Jemison's 78 rushing yards led an attack also featuring Dwane Brown's 116 passing yards. ASU's Marvin Neloms recorded three quarterback sacks.

December 12 at Arlington, Tex. (Crowd: 9,500)

December 15 at Arlington, Tex. (Crowd: 7,500)

Drake University	0	0	13	8	—	21

HIGHLIGHTS: Backup quarterback Bubba Crocker took over when regular James Hamilton was injured early in first quarter and masterfully directed the victory. He threw for two TDs, ran for another and scored a two-point conversion as the Tribe ran up a 22-0 halftime lead. Calvin Harrell supplied the muscle with 160 rushing yards on 34 carries.

1968 PECAN BOWL

Arkansas State	0	0	0	14	—	14

HIGHLIGHTS: Paul Hatchett plowed for 106 yards on 25 carries to spark NDSU, which took 9-0 record into the game. The Bison recovered an early fumble on ASU's 17, took it in three plays later and proceeded to a 23-0 halftime edge. James Hamilton, who passed for 173 yards, ran for a couple of fourth-period Indian scores, but they were too little and too late.

1954 TANGERINE BOWL

January 1 at Orlando, Fla. (Crowd: 12,976)

East Texas State	0	0	0	7	—	7

HIGHLIGHTS: ETSU, heavily favored with the nation's longest win streak at 29 straight, had to march 61 yards in the four period to manage the tie. ASU had scored in the first quarter on a 20-yard Bobby Spann to Jim Turley pass. Dan Spensieri intercepted an ETSU pass in the final period and appeared on the way to scoring with it but dropped the ball out of bounds at midfield.

December 7 at Evansville, Ind. (Crowd: 9,500)

Western Kentucky	0	14	13	7	—	34
