Media Information

FACILITIES: Media facilities in the Convocation Center consist of an area at floor level on the east side of the court for reporters, broadcasters and photographers, as well as a television-film booth located high on the east side of the arena. There is also a Media Room located on the west side open to the press before, during and after games. Admittance to these areas is by special credential issued only by the A-State Media Relations Office.

CREDENTIALS: Credentials for home games are provided to those members of the media who are covering the game in a full working capacity. Requests with names should be submitted in writing on company letterhead. Passes will be mailed to valid applicants as long as time permits; otherwise, passes may be claimed at the Media Entrance on the east side of the arena. Spouses, dates, children and non-workers are NOT permitted in the media areas. Passes must be displayed at all times, and A-State reserves the right to revoke passes and privileges at any time due to misrepresentation or misconduct. Requests for road-game credentials should be made to the SID of the host institution.

PARKING: A limited number of parking spaces are available to members of the media on a paved lot adjacent to the Media Entrance on the east side of the arena, Lot "A". Display a parking pass to the parking attendant for admittance. Parking is on a first-come, first-serve basis. All parking pass requests should be made to the Media Relations Office.

ENTRY: Media representatives with proper A-State-issued credentials will be allowed to enter the building ONLY at the Media Entrance (ground level, green corner of the arena) on the east side of the Convocation Center. This is also the main entry to the athletic offices and is adjacent to the Media parking area.

GAME SERVICES: Notes, programs, media guides, statistics, play-by-play, and live statistics (StatBroadcast) are provided. Books of all information will be available after the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: The arena lighting system is a combination of 1,000-watt and 1,500-watt metal halide lamps with a 150-foot-candle level of illumination. Excellent results have been obtained with daylight film. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from in front of the team benches nor from the catwalk above the floor (for security, insurance and safety reasons). Credentials are required to shoot from courtside. Certified photographers of newspapers, magazines, wire services and TV stations must request passes in writing. No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers.

INTERVIEWS: The head coach will be available for interviews in the media room after each game, following a brief team meeting. A-State student-athletes will also be available by request at this time. The locker room is closed to the media following games. To arrange for a student-athlete interview during the week, contact Dennen Cuthbertson at (870) 972-2541. All interviews must be approved by the head coach.

INJURY INFORMATION POLICY: A student-athlete's protected health information is protected by federal regulations under either the Health Information Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) or the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (the Buckley Amendment) and may not be disclosed without either the student-athlete's authorization under HIPAA or their consent under the Buckley Amendment. Authorized/consented injury information pertaining to a student-athlete shall be released to the media through the Department of Athletics Media Relations office after being authorized by the athletic trainer. It is also appropriate in post-game or weekly press conferences for head coaches to announce team injury updates. It is the policy of the Department of Athletics to provide accurate information on injuries and not withhold injury information from the media. Team physicians may be available to offer explanation on injuries if requested by the athletic trainer. Any sideline or locker room report made to the media shall be made by an athletic trainer, team physician, or a media relations staff representative.

Arkansas State Volleyball

2014 Season Outlook

Arkansas State will look to build on the momentum of back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Tournament semifinal appearances under head coach David Rehr and reach the ultimate goal of earning a NCAA Tournament berth in the 2014 campaign, the 40th season for the program. The Red Wolves ended the 2013 season with a 15-20 record, but were 9-9 in SBC play and upset the No. 2 seed UALR in the SBC Tournament. A-State lost seven lettermen from last season's squad, including five seniors, but welcomes nine newcomers to the squad.

Susie Jangada returns as an assistant and will coach the middle blockers. Tristan Johnson, a 2014 graduate of Alabama and student-assistant coach with the Crimson Tide, takes over the spot held by Tessa McGill last season.

The Red Wolves have to replace one of the most decorated players in its history, libero Megan Baska, who ended her career in second place on A-State's all-time digs list with 2,190, but sophomore Markie Schaedig will be first in line to step in for her. Schaedig recorded 245 digs as a defensive specialist last season. Other competition will come from sophomore Jessica Heuertz and junior Hannah Robey, a transfer from Tyler Junior College, and they will serve as other defensive specialists, along with incoming freshman Nicole Knight, who will also split time at outside hitter.

A-State has to replace 2013 kills leader Sadie Clark and Jackie Gerig on the outside but with senior Sarah Kemp and sophomores Kendal Davis and Shelby Holmes returning, A-State appears to have solid replacements in line. Davis garnered a lot of starts over the second half of the season after overcoming an injury and was the kills leader during the spring season for the Red Wolves. Joining the returnees, Kariana Castanon-Hill, a National Junior College Athletic Association All-American, will be in the mix for playing time along with true freshmen Marie Less and Brentlee Weaver.

Arkansas State needs to replace 2013 blocks leaders Kelsey Sullivan, but returning sophomore Kelsey Reis will look to improve on her impressive freshman season in which she led the team in hitting percentage (.301) and block solos (15). A stout freshman class of Drew Jones, Anna Murphy, and Jessica Uke will fight for time at the other spots. Jones brings in several accolades including the 2013 Gatorade Arkansas Volleyball Player of the Year and a spot on the 2013 PrepVolleyball.com All-American team. Murphy joins Reis as the tallest players on the team with a height of 6'3, while Uke was part of a high school team that advanced to the state championship.

Mallory Warrington returns as the team's main setter after taking over for Gerig around the midway point of the season. Warrington won the SBC Setter of the Week award once and the Freshman of the Week award during back-to-back weeks on Nov. 11 and Nov. 18. Backing up Warrington will be freshman Krystal Puente.

2013 Season Review

The 2013 A-State volleyball team completed its second season under head coach David Rehr with a 15-20 record and a 9-9 mark in Sun Belt Conference play. The young Red Wolves played a total of five NCAA Tournament teams, four of which came in a tough non-conference slate that featured four tournaments. Arkansas State notched its first win Sept. 6 against Kennesaw State in a 3-2 decision as part of the Ole Miss Invitational. The Red Wolves won two out of three contests at the Bama Bash before securing a 3-1 win at rival Memphis Sept. 17. A-State's Sadie Clark earned all-tournament accolades at two tournaments, while Kelsey Sullivan, Jackie Gerig, and Megan Baska were each named to one all-tournament team.

Arkansas State stepped into SBC action with a 4-10 record and began conference play with two home five-set home wins over Georgia State and Troy. The Red Wolves registered a 6-3 record over the first half of the conference slate and earned a home win over in-state opponent UAPB 3-0 to finish with a nonconference record of 5-10. The second half of the conference season was not as kind to the Red Wolves as they went 3-6 to finish with a 9-9 SBC record and 14-19 overall regular-season mark.

A-State's 9-9 record was good for a fifth-place tie in the conference but the Red Wolves were awarded the seventh seed in the SBC Tournament after tiebreakers to set up a match-up with in-state rival and second seed UALR. Arkansas State had dropped both decisions to the Trojans during the regular season but were able to defeat UALR 3-2 to advance to the semifinals of the SBC Tournament, marking the first time since 1999-2000 that A-State won a match in back-to-back conference tournaments. The Red Wolves' bid for a tournament championship was thwarted by Texas State in the semifinals as the Bobcats defeated A-State 3-0 and went on to represent the Sun Belt in the NCAA Tournament after defeating UT Arlington in the finals.

During the Oct. 25 match against UTA on the 23-21 point of the second set, Baska became only the second player in school history to reach 2,000 career digs. Baska finished her career with 2,190 digs and second all-time in Arkansas State history. The accolades didn't stop there for Baska as she was awarded the SBC Defensive Player of the Week award twice during the season to bring her career Sun Belt DPOW awards to 12, which is a conference record. Freshman setter Mallory Warrington also notched two SBC POW awards as she was awarded Setter of the Week on Nov. 11 and Freshman of the Week on Nov. 18.

Arkansas State Volleyball

Red Wolves' Home Courts

The Arkansas State Volleyball program has racked up 247 victories at the Convocation Center in the 26 seasons it has played in the arena. A-State has an amazing 241-69 record (.782) in the building since its opening in 1987 and has only one season in which it didn't play in the arena (2011). However, the Red Wolves have found a second home in the newly remodeled Health, Physical Education and Sport Science (HPESS) facility on campus. The facility was originally renovated to serve as a practice facility for the A-State men's and women's basketball teams, but the Arkansas State volleyball has utilized the facility for some home matches in the past several seasons. Since 2011, the Red Wolves have a 15-4 record in the building, including an 8-0 mark in 2011.

The team has had undefeated home records in five seasons, including 2004, when the team was 14-0 at the Convocation Center. The building was built in 1987 at a cost of $19 million and paid for primarily by the state of Arkansas. The 10,727-seat multi-purpose facility has earned its title as the "Showplace of Northeast Arkansas" over the past 25 years.

The Convocation Center is not only home to the Red Wolves' volleyball program, but also the Arkansas State men's and women's basketball programs and the indoor home of the A-State track and field program.

Beginning in 1990, the Convocation Center played host to seven straight conference post-season tournaments, including six straight Sun Belt Conference Volleyball Championships. In 1997, for the first time since ASU joined the Sun Belt Conference, the league's post-season tournament was held in a place other than Jonesboro.

ASU won five of those seven conference tournaments it hosted, going 21-4 in tournament action at the Convocation Center.

Arkansas State has had crowds of over 1,000 for a volleyball match eight times, including a record 4,140 for a match against the University of Memphis on Nov. 25, 1995, that was part of a men's basketball/volleyball doubleheader.

ASU went undefeated in home matches in back-to-back seasons in 1988 (15-0) and 1989 (12-0) and won its first three home matches of the 1990 season to post a 28-match home winning streak, the longest in program history. A-State has gone through a season with just one home loss six times, including two years ago in 2012 (3-1). The other five came in 1994 (11-1), 1995 (15-1), 1999 (14-1), 2003 (11-1), and 2009 (8-1).

Not only does the Convocation Center play host to Arkansas State athletic home events, the building also attracts people from all over Northeast Arkansas and the Mid-South region for a variety of other events—from concerts to conventions, area business expositions and conferences, banquets and university and high school commencements as well.

The Sun Belt Conference

The Sun Belt Conference mantra “Together We Rise” exemplifies what has quickly become America’s most up-and-coming collegiate athletics conference.

Founded in 1976, the Sun Belt has adapted and evolved in its nearly 40 year existence. The league was originally formed as a home for some of the nation’s premier mid-major basketball teams and it wasn’t until a number of changes and the demand for a higher national profile that the league began sponsoring football in 2001. Because of this decision to move the league in to the group of football playing conferences, the Sun Belt Conference has a permanent seat on the NCAA’s 18-member Board of Directors. As a result, the conference has a crucial voice on some of the most pressing issues in college athletics.

With the 2014-15 year marking the debut of the College Football Playoff (CFP) the Sun Belt continues to find itself among the 10 premier college football conferences and the new system is guaranteed universal access based on performance – there are no automatic qualifiers for the playoff system. Additionally, the CFP will mean that a spot among the premier bowl games of college football will be guaranteed to the highest-ranked champion from the other “Group of Five” conferences: the Sun Belt Conference, American Athletic Conference, Mountain West Conference, Mid-American Conference and Conference USA.

With the College Football Playoff included with the league’s other bowl arrangements, the Sun Belt Conference is tied to seven total bowl games. The R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, the GoDaddy Bowl, the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl, the Cure Bowl (debuting in 2015) all guarantee a home for a bowl eligible Sun Belt Conference team each year. And beginning with the 2016 season, the Sun Belt is also part of a rotation of conferences that will send a team to the Bahamas Bowl and the Miami Beach Bowl.

The influx of bowl game opportunities comes at a time when the Sun Belt Conference is breaking win records year after year and the league is continually exceeding expectations.

The Sun Belt’s 21 non-conference football wins in the 2013 season was a new record for the league - eclipsing the mark of 19 set the year prior. Additionally of note for the league’s non-conference win total was that the Sun Belt fared well against its peer opponents in the non-AQ BCS ranks. The Sun Belt finished a combined 8-1 against members of Conference-USA (4-1), the Mid-American Conference (3-0) and the Mountain West Conference (1-0). The Sun Belt also had the best overall non-conference win percentage when comparing the four non-AQ conferences.

The 2013 football season also saw two teams take home bowl championship trophies, as UL Lafayette won its third consecutive R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl and Arkansas State won its second consecutive GoDaddy Bowl.

Of course, football wasn’t the only sport that has seen recent success and all of the league’s sports have contributed to the “Rise” of the Sun Belt Conference.

In men’s basketball, league newcomer Georgia State put together one of the best conference performances in league history in winning the 2013-14 Sun Belt regular season championship. UL Lafayette captured the league’s automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament in what was one of the most thrilling finishes to the Sun Belt championship game in recent memory.

An influx of young coaches mixed with proven veterans makes both Sun Belt men’s and women’s basketball an exciting brand with vast potential.

The Sun Belt Conference Men’s and Women’s Basketball Championships were played in the hometown of the Sun Belt at Lakefront Arena this past March in what was the first of a three year deal that will have Sun Belt hoops in the “Big Easy” each March.

Baseball and softball continue to be among the league’s standard-bearers for success as each continues to send teams on deep postseason runs and teams are easy to find in the national polls.

In baseball, UL Lafayette held a unanimous No. 1 national ranking during the 2014 season and hosted a NCAA Tournament Regional and Super Regional. Not to be outdone, the UL Lafayette softball team also hosted the NCAA Tournament rounds and qualified for the 2014 edition of the Women’s College World Series.

In recent years as many as four Sun Belt teams have advanced to the baseball postseason in a single year, while as many as three Sun Belt softball teams have accomplished that feat.

While the accomplishments of the Sun Belt’s student-athletes and coaches deserve great praise, so to do the league’s administrators who have helped set the tone for the future of the conference.

“We have never been as strong as we are now academically and financially and I believe we are getting stronger all the time athletically,” former Sun Belt Conference President and Troy University Chancellor Dr. Jack Hawkins, Jr. said recently. “I truly believe that the best is yet to come.”

The Sun Belt Conference’s membership consists of 11 football members for 2014 – Appalachian State, Arkansas State, Georgia Southern, Georgia State, Idaho, UL Lafayette, UL Monroe, New Mexico State, South Alabama, Texas State and Troy. UALR and UT Arlington compete in all-sports as non-football members while Idaho and New Mexico State are football only members.

Prominent Sun Belt alumni include Lyndon B. Johnson, former President of the United States (Texas State), former All-Star baseball player Luis Gonzalez (South Alabama), former member of the United States Senate and House of Representatives John Breaux (UL Lafayette), country music superstar Tim McGraw (UL Monroe), CEO of Duck Commander and Buck Commander Willie Robertson (UL Monroe) and DeMarcus Ware, an All-Pro NFL linebacker (Troy).

Welcome to Arkansas State

Focusing on its mission to educate leaders, enhance intellectual growth and enrich lives, Arkansas State University is the catalyst for progress. Founded in 1909, A-State meets the challenges of continuing as a destination university for more than 13,500 students through the combination of world-class research with a long tradition of student-friendly instruction.

The second largest university in Arkansas, Arkansas State is a doctoral-level national institution with more than 150 degrees areas of study, including a robust online program, and a diverse student body from across the nation and the world. Two visionary programs – an osteopathic medical school in Jonesboro and an American-style campus in Mexico – approach their starting phases and prime examples of the innovation at Arkansas State.

Doctors of Osteopathic Medicine (D.O.) are fully trained physicians completing four years of medical school and state licensure. The word most often heard regarding A-State's pursuit of a D.O. school: transformative. Working with partners from New York Institute of Technology, plans look for the first class of medical students in Jonesboro by fall 2015.

Similar feelings exist for the February 2014 ground-breaking in the north central Mexican state of Querétaro as A-State becomes the first U.S. public university to open a residential campus in Mexico. The first students at Querétaro are anticipated to begin their A-State degrees in fall 2016.

These innovations join A-State's tradition as an institution of higher learning designed to serve the needs of its region and state. Founded as an agricultural institution, A-State remains a research leader taking agriculture to the molecular level through the Arkansas Biosciences Institute while continuing the traditions of hands-on work at the university's farm. The College of Business earned national and international acclaim for its undergraduate and MBA programs and is home to the Delta Center for Economic Development. One of the state's centers of excellence is the College of Media and Communication, one of the top media programs in the country. The College of Engineering achieved a unique trifecta in 2013 with the national accreditation of three individual disciplines – civil, mechanical and electrical engineering.

A vital part of the region's growth as a hub for the medical industry is the College of Nursing and Health Professions. Another key health care area is the pre-professional programs, ranging from medicine, dentistry and veterinary, along with the STEM research areas of the College of Science and Mathematics. A-State is the instructional leader as the College of Education and Behavioral Science produced the most educators for the state.

As the home of the state of Arkansas' first Artist Laureate, world-renowned print maker Evan Lindquist, A-State is the hub of the cultural community. The state's only College of Fine Arts allows students in music, theatrical and artistic disciplines with the opportunity to grow as performers. The campus is one of the most vibrant in the region, with a resident community that broke all-time records in the fall of 2013. The university opened Sorority Row, and the five new sorority houses led to a jump of more than 40% in Greek life participation.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS COMMITTEE

The Intercollegiate Athletics Committee was formed in the spring of 1997.

The Intercollegiate Athletics Committee reviews and makes recommendations on issues involving the welfare of student-athletes, the role of athletics in campus life, and the athletics program's compliance with the university, conference, and NCAA regulations; serves as a search advisory committee for key athletics program personnel; reviews the role of existing and potential sports programs; and reviews the athletics budget. The committee reports to the Chancellor.

Membership consists of four students appointed annually by the Student Government Association (one should be a student-athlete); four faculty appointed by the Faculty Senate (staggered two-year terms); one Faculty Athletic Representative appointed by the Chancellor (two-year term); one executive staff member appointed by the Chancellor (two-year term); the Dean of University College; two staff members appointed by the Staff Senate (staggered two-year terms); Student Government Association and Student Activities Board presidents; and representatives from the following external organizations: Alumni Association, Red Wolf Club, Letterman's Club, and the Jonesboro Regional Chamber of Commerce ASU Committee. The Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and the Senior Woman Athletic Administrator serve as ex-officio, nonvoting members. The chancellor appoints a chair at the beginning of each academic year.

Dr. Tim Hudson, Chancellor

Appointed on May 1, 2012, by the ASU Board of Trustees, Dr. Tim Hudson is the second chancellor in Arkansas State history. Since his appointment, Arkansas State has started projects to transform the Jonesboro campus into a destination university.

His vision for the creation of public-private partnerships to enhance Arkansas State led to plans to establish the first American-style university campus operated by a U.S. college in Mexico, and an agreement to join with New York Institute of Technology to locate a College of Osteopathic Medicine in Jonesboro. Preparing the next generation of leaders with a commitment toward a global mindset is a high priority for Hudson, resulting in a significant growth in study-abroad opportunities for A-State students.

Programs to improve residences through living-learning communities and the opening of Sorority Row generated an all-time record for Arkansas State's on-campus student population in 2013-14. For the past two years, A-State has welcomed the most academically prepared freshman class (i.e., highest ACT scores and high school GPAs). Under his administration, A-State achieved a goal of Southern Regional Education Board salary parity for professors at all levels, and record enrollment.

Hudson joined A-State from Texas Tech University System, where he was a vice chancellor. From 2004 until 2010, he was president of the University of Houston-Victoria following a two-decade tenure as a professor of economic development, program director, founding dean of the College of International and Continuing Education, and provost at the University of Southern Mississippi. Prior to working in academia, he served as an analyst for the Bureau of Intelligence and Research in the U.S. Department of State.

He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in history and Latin American studies, Master of Arts in geography from Southern Miss and Ph.D. from Clark University of Worcester, Mass. He has written numerous scholarly works for national and international publications, including a recent co-authored book focusing on multinational corporation subsidiaries in China (Chandos, Cambridge).

Hudson was the recipient of two Fulbright Fellowships (Germany and Mexico) and an ITT International Fellowship to study in Colombia. He has developed and led more than 30 programs for U.S. students to study abroad and was awarded an honorary doctorate by London Guildhall University for his contributions to global literacy.

He is married to Dr. Deidra "DeeDee" Ransburgh Hudson, who is the head of A-State's Study Abroad Program; she holds a Master of Science degree in speech pathology from the University of Tennessee and a Ph.D. in educational leadership from Southern Miss. The Hudsons have three children, Gianna Grace and twins Daisy and Nathaniel.

Director of Athletics, Terry Mohajir

Terry Mohajir is in his second year as Director of Athletics at Arkansas State University. He became the 11th Director of Athletics in A-State history on September 19, 2012.

Since being named director of athletics, Mohajir (pronounced MO-HODGE-ER) has adopted an "ALWAYS RISING" slogan as an expansion on the popular "RED WOLVES RISING" campaign. With that theme in mind, the Arkansas State alumnus has instituted sweeping changes, created new policies, produced record-breaking fundraising totals, overseen significant facility upgrades and implemented creative philosophies that have put the Red Wolves on course to strengthen their national brand. During his brief watch, the Red Wolves have accomplished numerous firsts in both academics and athletics accomplishments.

Since his arrival to A-State, the Red Wolves have claimed two Sun Belt Conference football championships (2012-13), won the league's West Division in men's basketball (2012-13) and picked up conference titles in women's indoor track and field (2013), women's cross country (2014) and women's basketball (2013-14).

Arkansas State had its first female student-athlete ever win an individual national championship and its women's athletics program claimed its highest finish all-time in the Capital One Cup standings, earning a prestigious top-50 award for ranking No. 44 among all NCAA Division I programs during 2013-14. The 2013-14 athletics year also saw A-State finish No. 83 in the nation in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup standings, which was its first ever top-100 ranking.

Thrust into a football coaching change at the end of the 2012 regular season, Mohajir responded with one of his first major acts as athletics director by appointing an interim head coach and keeping the entire assistant coaching staff in place for the 2013 GoDaddy.com Bowl. The Red Wolves went on to claim their first bowl victory since 1970 and their first win over a top-25 ranked opponent since joining the FBS in 1992. Faced with a head football coaching change last season as well, Mohajir guided A-State through the process again by keeping the assistant coaching staff in place and giving the Red Wolves everything needed in order to pick up a second consecutive GoDaddy Bowl win.

Mohajir conducted two national searches for a new head football coach that resulted in the hiring of Bryan Harsin at the end 2012 and Blake Anderson a year later. Both hires were heralded by the national media as some of the best hires in the country.

Mohajir's candid media interviews and engaging public speaking appearances have captivated the Red Wolves fan base, but his actions in a short amount of time have also reflected his vision to take A-State Athletics to new heights.

The primary development arm of A-State Athletics, formerly known as the Red Wolf Club, has been renamed the Red Wolves Foundation and a new logo has been introduced as part of a rebranding effort. The changes have been in conjunction with new and exciting initiatives that have been put in place, including a Red Wolves 500 program designed to make a significant impact on donor relations and fundraising opportunities. The positive results are evident with a 41 percent increase in annual funds raised over the previous two years and a 63 percent jump in corporate sales over last year under Mohajir's watch.

Mohajir has made it a point to engage the fan base, stressing the importance of fan experience through avenues such as court-side seating at basketball games, enhancing game-day atmosphere and ensuring that staff go out of their way to extend every fan their assistance. The most recent change in this area has been to Centennial Bank Stadium, where a new approximately 1,600 square foot LED Daktronics scoreboard is being installed for the 2014 season.

The value he places on the student-athlete has been evident, creating the inaugural stAte Awards held at the end of each year to celebrate both their academic and athletic accomplishments. He was behind the development of a student-advisory group that encompasses everything from a student-athlete mentorship program to fostering leadership in the community. The Red Wolves Leadership Academy Program's key initiative is 100 percent job placement for all the department's student-athletes upon graduation.

The Red Wolves also saw their academic performance reach an all-time high during a record-setting 2013 fall semester, which saw student-athletes achieve a school-record 3.029 all-department GPA.

Facilities have received a number of facelifts since Mohajir's arrival as well, making sure that the athletics department's "front door" and other sports areas possess a first-class appearance. He has taken over the fundraising efforts for a $25-million football facility project, making adjustments to the plans that allow for a better fan experience, environment for student-athletes and revenue-generating areas.

Under Mohajir's watch, A-State received its largest single gift commitment ever by an individual ($5 million by Arkansas State University alumnus Johnny Allison for a "Centennial Expansion Project" at the football stadium).

Since Mohajir's arrival, A-State has already invested over $16 million in construction and facility renovations, including a new 1,600-square foot LED video scoreboard, stadium lighting and seats at Centennial Bank Stadium. Also included in the upgrades have been renovations and updates inside the A-State Football Facility and weight rooms, locker rooms and training rooms at both Centennial Bank Stadium and the Convocation Center, where new seating is also being installed.

A-State is also scheduled to break ground this fall on a new women's soccer and women's tennis facility near the soccer field and tennis courts, which will house both squads' locker rooms, training room areas, offices and more.

His philosophies on scheduling have been well documented, and they have resulted in home-and-home games with nationally-prominent programs such as Missouri and Miami for the first time in A-State history. He has capitalized on the Red Wolves recent success by gaining additional games against teams such as Southern Cal, making A-State the first Sun Belt program to schedule a football contest against the Trojans.

Mohajir was recently appointed as the Sun Belt Conference's representative on the College Football Playoff Athletic Director's Advisory Board, acting as one of 10 athletics directors from FBS conferences on the board. He was also asked to serve on the NCAA Division I Championships Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee. Mohajir's career path went through three other NCAA Division I institutions, including the University of Missouri-Kansas City, Florida Atlantic and Kansas, before leading him back to his alma mater.

The Overland Park, Kansas native has been involved with major fundraising campaigns at multiple universities, while also overseeing corporate sales, marketing promotions and ticket sales. Prior to A-State, he most recently served 16 months as Kansas' Senior Associate Director of Athletics and Chief Marketing Officer. Prior to his time with the Jayhawks, he spent a seven-year stint as Florida Atlantic's Senior Associate Director of Athletics for External Relations from 2004-11 after working at UMKC from 1997-2004 as its Assistant Director of Athletics for External Relations.

Mohajir's original connection to KU dated back to the early 1990's, when he was a graduate assistant, an assistant offensive line coach and game-day special team's football coach for the Jayhawks (1993-96). He left Kansas in 1997 but didn't go far, staying in the Kansas City area to take over his administrative position with the newly-created Division I UMKC Athletics program.

Mohajir graduated from Arkansas State University with a major in sports management and a minor in marketing in 1993. He was a starting safety on A-State's football team.

Mohajir is married to the former Julie Hammond and they have two daughters, Maria (13) and Molly (11), and son, Marco (6).

A-State Facilities

Arkansas State University's athletic programs compete in top-of-the-line facilities.

Centennial Bank Stadium, which opened in 1974, has evolved into a beautiful stadium which seats 30,406 fans. That includes a cluster of exclusive suites in the south end zone atop the football office complex.

The 192,000 square-foot Convocation Center is a multi-purpose facility that is home to the A-State basketball, volleyball and indoor track and field teams.

Coaches and student-athletes moved into a new $2.7 million track and field complex in spring 2004. It contains an eight-lane 400-meter track and can be set up for two NCAA venues.

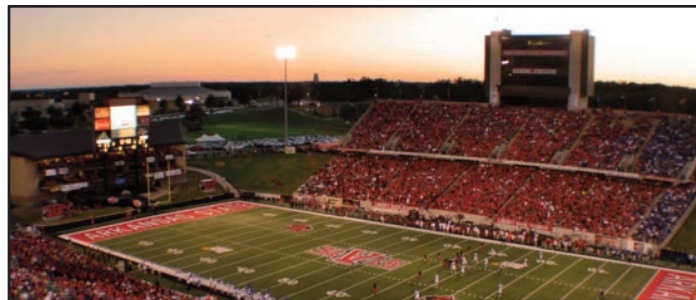

Three local country clubs graciously allow A-State's men's and women's golf programs to utilize their facilities for practice and play.

J.A. "Ike" Tomlinson Stadium-Kell Field serves as home to Red Wolves baseball. Built in 1993, the stadium received complete lighting in 1996, 206 field level seats were added for the 2008 season and a new scoreboard was installed in 2011.

A-State's prominent women's bowling program competes in the Jonesboro Bowling Center.

The Red Wolves' soccer and track and field teams will utilize the same stadium for the first time in school history during 2014-15, as the soccer field is being relocated as part of the track facility.

A-State is also scheduled to break ground this fall on a new women's soccer and women's tennis facility near the soccer and tennis courts, which will house both squads' locker rooms, training room areas, offices, and more.

Jonesboro, Arkansas

Jonesboro, home of Arkansas State University, weighs in as the largest city in Northeast Arkansas. As a matter of fact, if you form a triangle by connecting Little Rock, St. Louis and Memphis, Jonesboro stands out as the largest metropolitan city in what amounts to a 17,000 square mile triangular area.

Jonesboro is a great city of 60,000, and is always ready to welcome incoming ASU students from the moment they arrive in town. The booming community has matured over the past half century into a regional center for cultural, educational, industrial, commercial, agricultural, communication, transportation, recreational and medical interests. It contains almost every convenience of a big city and every comfort of a small town.

The community is alive with cultural events such as the art exhibitions, theatrical and musical productions, not only on campus but in the city itself through the Jonesboro Fine Arts Council, NEA Foundation of Arts, the Forum and the Northeast Arkansas Symphony. One highlight is the annual Hispanic celebration when downtown Main Street is transformed into a festive explosion of Hispanic music, food and cultural activity.

Jonesboro is also the medical hub of northeast Arkansas and southeast Missouri, with two major hospitals and countless medical professionals. The city is also a shopping mecca, offering a modern business district as well as quaint downtown antique shops and restaurants. The $100 million Mall at Turtle Creek recently opened with more than 100 stores.

One of the five largest cities in Arkansas, Jonesboro is located between the vast and fertile Mississippi River and the cultural and scenic richness of the Ozark Mountains. It is nestled about 70 miles west of Memphis, Tennessee, on the gentle slopes of Crowley's Ridge.

Jonesboro is a comfortable one hour drive from Memphis, two hours from Little Rock and four hours from St. Louis. The city and University have meshed resources in recent years and have truly become the "capital" of the northeast quadrant of the state.

Northeast Arkansas is a recreation haven for the person who enjoys water sports, fishing, hunting, and boating as well as the joys of unspoiled nature. Jonesboro and the surrounding area have an abundance of lakes, rivers, ponds, streams and forests to serve as nature's playgrounds for the avid outdoors person.

And, Jonesboro, ranked by Forbes.com as the 27th "best small place to live" is a nice place to call home.
