Arkansas State (1-0) hosts Texas Southern (0-1)

September 6, 2008 • ASU Stadium (30,406)

Jonesboro, Arkansas • 6:00 p.m.

Radio: Arkansas State Radio Network (KFIN 107.9 FM, flagship)

Television: JumpTV Webcasting (astateredwolves.com)

ON TAP: The Arkansas State football team will look for its first 2-0 start since 1986 when it hosts Texas Southern in its home opener Sept. 6. Every Arkansas State game can be heard live on 107.9 FM in the Jonesboro area and the live radio broadcast can be accessed through the Arkansas State athletic Web site (astateredwolves.com).

THE PRINCIPALS: Arkansas State defeated Texas A&M, which was receiving votes in the USA Today Coaches Poll, 18-14 in its season opener. With a victory, ASU can secure its first 2-0 start as a member of the NCAA FBS. The Texas Southern Tigers suffered a 34-14 setback in their season opener against Prairie View A&M in the 24th Annual State Farm Labor Day Classic, played at Houston's Reliant Stadium.

HEAD COACH STEVE ROBERTS: Arkansas State head coach Steve Roberts is in his seventh year at Arkansas State after leading the Red Wolves to the 2005 Sun Belt Conference Championship and their most single-season wins over NCAA FBS opponents in 2006. During his first six seasons as the Red Wolves' head coach, he guided ASU to 31 wins for its most over a six-year span at the school since 1986-1991. Roberts was named the 2005 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. Under Roberts, the Red Wolves have had 53 All-Sun Belt Conference selections, an Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year, SBC Offensive Player of the Year, SBC Defensive Player of the Year and SBC Newcomer of the Year.

ROBERTS CLIMBING VICTORIES

LADDER: In his first six-plus seasons as the Red Wolves head coach, Steve Roberts already has the fifth most victories among ASU's 26 all-time head coaches with 32 wins. Larry Lacewell (1979-89) holds the record for victories with 69 and is followed by Bennie Ellender (1963-70) with 52 wins, Bill Davidson (1971-78) with 51 and Forrest England (1946-53) with 49.

DEBUT OF THE RED WOLVES:

The Arkansas State football team is competing in its first season as the Red Wolves after changing its nickname and mascot from Indians at the conclusion of the 2007-08 athletic seasons. More information on the Red Wolves mascot and logos, as well as the change in names can be found on page 171 of the 2008 ASU Football Media Guide.

ARKANSAS STATE vs. SWAC:

Arkansas State has played just three games all-time against current members of the SWAC. The Red Wolves opened played in the NCAA I-AA playoffs with a 10-7 victory over Grambling State in 1985, and most recently knocked off both Mississippi Valley State (55-3) and Jacksonville State (37-6) during the 1995 season. Both games in 1995 were played in Jonesboro.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS:

Texas Southern, coming off an 0-11 2007 campaign, dropped its season opener 34-14 against Prairie View A&M last Saturday in the 24th Annual State Farm Labor Day Classic. Prairie View A&M held TSU to just 113 yards of total offense, while the Tigers gave up 349 yards of offense to the Panthers. The Tigers return six offensive starters and 10 defensive starters from last year's team, while former Texas Southern quarterback Johnnie Cole is in his first season as the Tigers head coach. Among Texas Southern's newcomers for 2008 is former Houston high school standout and Oklahoma State quarterback Bobby Reid. Reid started 27 games for Oklahoma State, passing for 3,143 yards and 28 touchdowns while with the Cowboys.

HOME OPENERS: Arkansas State is 5-1 in home openers at ASU Stadium under head coach Steve Roberts, who has led the Red Wolves to a 22-7 record on their home field. ASU has won its last three home openers, including a 45-28 victory over SMU last season. The last time ASU dropped a home opener was in 2004, when it fell 47-35 to then-ranked No. 25 Memphis. In addition to SMU last season, Roberts' teams have also won home openers over Tulsa (21-19 in 2002), Tennessee-Martin (63-6 in 2003 and 56-7 in 2005) and Army (14-6 in 2006).

OUT OF THE GATES: ASU will try to improve to 2-0 to start the season for the first time since 1986 and the first time ever as an NCAA FBS (formerly Division I-A) member. The 1986 team actually got off to a 3-0 start before tying Ole Miss 10-10 in its fourth contest of the season.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION: Senior linebacker Ben Owens (Bearden, Ark.) has been named the FWAA/Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week for games of the weekend of Aug. 30 after helping lead the Red Wolves to a season-opening victory over Texas A&M.

Owens, a preseason All-Sun Belt Conference selection, becomes the first player in ASU history to be named a national defensive player of the week and the first Sun Belt Conference player to receive the recognition since FAU cornerback Tavious

Polo last season after the Owls defeated Minnesota on Sept. 20. Owens, already on the Butkus Award Watch List, will be added to the 2008 Bronko Nagurski Trophy Watch List. The Bronko Nagurski Trophy will be presented to the best defensive player in college football on Dec. 7 by the FWAA and the Charlotte Touchdown Club at the Westin Hotel in Charlotte, N.C. Five finalists for the Nagurski Trophy will be announced on Nov. 17.

RED WOLVES SWEEP WEEKLY SBC

HONORS: Junior quarterback Corey Leonard (Covington, La.), senior linebacker Ben Owens (Bearden, Ark.) and junior kicker Josh Arauco (Grand Prairie, Texas) were named the Sun Belt Conference's players of the week Monday after leading the Red Wolves football team to a season-opening victory over Texas A&M.

Leonard was named the offensive player of the Week, Owens the defensive player of the week and Arauco the special teams player of the week, marking the first time in school history ASU swept all three awards and the first time since Nov. 5, 2007 that any school swept all three honors. It is just the 10th time in Sun Belt Conference history that three players from the same school have swept the awards, and ASU becomes the fifth school to be awarded all three honors in the same week.

COREY LEONARD HIGHLIGHTS:

Leonard, named the league's offensive player of the week for the fifth time of his career, was responsible for 246 yards of total offense and threw the game-winning touchdown against Texas A&M with 4:39 left in the fourth quarter to help lift ASU to an 18-14 road victory. Leonard completed 15-of-28 passes, including a 15-yard touchdown strike to Kevin Jones that gave ASU a 15-14 late lead. He finished with 160 yards passing and added 86 more yards on the ground, including a career-long 32-yard run that set up ASU's third field goal of the game to pull ASU within 14-9 in the third quarter. He averaged 5.1 yards per rush and 10.7 yards per completion. His 86 yards rushing were just four shy of his career high and his 246 yards of total offense pushed him over 4,500 total yards for his career. His touchdown pass gave him 25 for his career, tying the third most in school history, and he also went over 300 career completions during the game.

BEN OWENS HIGHLIGHTS: Owens recorded seven tackles, one tackle for loss, one sack, an interception and a fumble recovery, while also helping the ASU defense pitch a second-half shutout in the game. Owens' was responsible for stopping the Aggies last two drives of the game after the Red Wolves went ahead 15-14. He recovered a fumble on the Texas A&M 39-yard line, setting up a field goal that gave ASU a four-point lead with 1:12 left to play. He then intercepted Stephen McGee with 10 seconds left in the game, halting the Aggies final drive that reached the ASU 34-yard line and clinching the victory for ASU. Owens posted the first sack of his career and his seven tackles were the second most on the team.

ARAUCO HIGHLIGHTS: Arauco was responsible for 12 of ASU's 18 points in the Red Wolves four-point victory over Texas A&M, making a career-high four field goals in the game. Arauco was perfect 4-of-4 on his field goal attempts, hitting twice from 37 yards out, once from 28 yards and once from 25 yards. His four field goals ties the second most in both ASU and Sun Belt Conference history for a single game. Arauco became just the second player in ASU history and the fourth in Sun Belt Conference history to kick four field goals in a game. Three of his four field goals came in the second half, including a 37-yarder with 1:12 left to play that forced Texas A&M to try for a touchdown on its final drive. Arauco moved into fifth place at ASU for career field goals made, increasing his total to 31.

TURNING IT AROUND ON THE ROAD: Arkansas State turned around its recent fortune in road games last week, snapping a seven-game skid away from ASU Stadium with its victory over Texas A&M. The last time ASU won a season opener on the road was 1989 when it defeated Memphis 17-13. The crowd of 78,691 for the Texas A&M game was the ninth largest to ever watch an Arkansas State game.

TEXAS A&M GAME NOTABLES: ASU won its first ever game over a BCS school since it joined NCAA FBS. The Red Wolves also broke Texas A&M's 20-game winning streak in home openers, handing the Aggies just their fourth loss over their last 50 non-conference home games. ASU picked up its first victory in 15 games against current members of the Big 12 Conference

GETTING TO THE QUARTERBACK: ASU recorded four sacks against the Aggies, topping its season-high (3) for all of last season during a game. Linebacker Ben Owens recorded his third career sack, while corner Dominique Williams and defensive tackles Khari Mays and Bryan Hall all posted the first sack of their careers. ASU ranked eighth in the SBC last year in sacks with 13 for the season.

WELCOME TO COLLEGE: ASU had 10 players (two true freshmen and seven red-shirt freshmen) see their first playing time in a college game Saturday night. Kelcie McCray, Derek Lawson, Jaquan Kilcrease, Jermaine Robertson, Elroy Brown, Dorvus Woods, Jeremy Gibson, Ryan Wilbourn, Greg McCall and Graham Bates all played their first college game.

PICKING IT OFF: The Red Wolves intercepted two passes against Texas A&M, extending their streak of at least one interception to seven games. The Red Wolves led the Sun Belt Conference in interceptions in 2006 and ranked fifth in the league last year. Safety M.D. Jennings and Ben Owens both intercepted a pass for the second time of thier careers.

OFFENSIVE UPRISING: ASU surpassed 400 yards of total offense in its first game, while only reaching the 400-yard mark in three games for all of last season. The Red Wolves rushed for 255 yards and added 160 yards on the ground. ASU is ranked first in the Sun Belt Conference in total offense after the season's first week of play. The Red Wolves also extended their winning streak to six games when recording 400 yards of total offense

TELEVISION TIME: Three Arkansas State games will be televised by ESPN Plus and another game televised by CSS in 2008. The Red Wolves' home games against Louisiana-Monroe on Oct. 11 (6:00 p.m.) and Florida Atlantic on Nov. 22 (2:00 p.m.) and road game at Troy on Dec. 6 (6:00 p.m.) will all be televised by ESPN Plus, while their game at Alabama on Nov. 1 will be carried by CSS. . . . ASU's four regular-season televised games for 2008 ties the second most in school history, matching the 2005 season. The Red Wolves' had a school-record six televised games during the 2007 campaign.

NEW FLAGSHIP RADIO STATION ANNOUNCED: The Arkansas State University Athletic Department, along with East Arkansas Broadcasters, announced July 16 that KFIN 107.9 FM, a 100,000-watt radio station located in Jonesboro, will become the new flagship station and home of Red Wolves' football broadcasts for the 2008 season. KFIN's 100,000-watt signal reaches parts of Tennessee, Missouri and a large portion of Arkansas, giving more ASU football fans the opportunity to follow the Red Wolves during the upcoming season. The full release can be found on astatederredwolves.com.

ARNOLD ON DOAK WALKER WATCH LIST: Junior running back Reggie Arnold has been named to the list of candidates for the 2008 Doak Walker Award, announced by the Guaranty Bank SMU Athletic Forum.

Arnold is a candidate for the award, presented annually to the nation's top running back, for the second straight year and joins former ASU running back Jonathan Adams as the only two players in school history to make the watch list during two different seasons. Adams was a candidate for the award in 2000 and 2001.

Arnold is among 43 candidates, including two from the Sun Belt Conference, to be named to the award's 2008 watch list. The Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference selection rushed for over 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons at ASU. He was named the Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year in 2006 and is a two-time all-conference pick.

OWENS ON BUTKUS WATCH LIST: Senior linebacker Ben Owens has been named to the watch list for the 2008 Butkus Award, given annually to the top linebacker in college football. Owens, a preseason All-Sun Belt Conference selection, was one of 66 players named to the watch list after posting a career-high 96 tackles last season that ranked fifth in the Sun Belt. His 96 tackles were just five fewer than team-leader Koby McKinnon, who was on the 2007 Butkus Award Watch List.

MANDICH WATCH LIST: Senior offensive lineman Matt Mandich is not only a preseason First Team All-Sun Belt Conference by a number of college football publications, he is also on a couple of prestigious watch lists. Mandich is on both the Outland Trophy Watch List and Rotary Lombardi Watch List. Not only that, he was named preseason Honorable Mention All-America by Sporting News.

DOUBLE-DIGIT COMEBACKS: Arkansas State has rallied for a victory in seven games when trailing by double-digits under head coach Steve Roberts. Following is a year-by-year list of ASU's double-digit comeback victories under Roberts:

QUICK CLIMB: Corey Leonard is making a quick climb up the all-time passing records at Arkansas State. Leonard, just a junior, is already ranked sixth all-time for career completions (306), seventh for passing yards (3,716) and tied for third in passing touchdowns (25). Leonard is also ranked sixth all-time for total offense (4,680).

FAST TRACK TO DEGREE: Corey Leonard, just a junior on the football field, went through ASU's Summer Commencement ceremony this year after earning his bachelor's degree in just three years in Business. Leonard is now enrolled graduate school and will begin working toward his master's degree this fall.

GAINING GROUND: With 2,277 career rushing yards, junior running back Reggie Arnold is ranked ninth among the career rushing leaders in ASU history. Arnold has rushed for at least 100 yards in a game 10 times, including the Texas A&M game, for his career for the sixth (tied) most in school history.

400TH VICTORY: With its victory over Louisiana-Lafayette on Oct. 13 of last year, ASU became the fifth Sun Belt Conference school with 400 all-time wins. ASU is in its 94th season of football and holds an all-time record of 403-427-37 since its inaugural 1911 season. The Red Wolves have played in seven bowl games, including the 2005 New Orleans Bowl.

SIX-YEAR IMPROVEMENT: During seventh-year head coach Steve Roberts' first six seasons at Arkansas State the football program saw its win total increase by almost 100 percent over the previous six years. ASU posted 31 wins over Roberts' first six years, 14 more than it recorded the six years prior to Roberts. In fact, ASU's 31 wins over those six years are the most for a six-year span since 1986-91.

TEAM CAPTAINS: ASU's senior class will alternate throughout the year as team captains. The team will vote on permanent captains at the end of the year.

17 AND UNDER: Arkansas State holds a 15-3 record under head coach Steve Roberts when holding its opponents to 17 points or less. However, ASU is 11-30 over the last six seasons when allowing 17 or more points. The Red Wolves have won 12 of their last 13 games when holding their opponent to 17 or fewer points and has won 26 straight games when holding their opponents to 10 or fewer points.

TEAM ACADEMIC AWARD: The Arkansas State football team has won the Sun Belt Conference Team Academic Award four of the past five years, including 2007.

A VISIT FROM THE GOVERNOR: Arkansas Governor Mike Beebe looked on as the Arkansas State Red Wolves went through a two-hour practice at the ASU practice fields during 2008 fall camp. Beebe, who was the guest speaker at the ASU Touchdown Club banquet Tuesday that night, addressed the team following practice, then took time to pose for pictures with ASU players and fans. "Obviously, it was a privilege for us to have the governor of the state of Arkansas here at our practice and to speak to our team," said ASU Head Coach Steve Roberts. "We are very proud of what he has accomplished and continues to accomplish as the governor and as an ASU Alumni."

AFCA AWARD: Prior to the start of the 2007 season, the American Football Coaches Association announced that the Arkansas State University football team was one of just 34 Division I-A football programs that graduated 70 percent or more of its student-athletes from their freshman classes of 2001-02.

A TIME TO BOND: When Head Coach Steve Roberts came to ASU, he brought a tradition with him which caught on in a hurry with the players. The night before each game, team members and coaches get together for milk and cookies. During this time, each player sits by and visits with at least three other players he has not visited with throughout the week in order to learn more about his teammates.

HEAD COACH STEVE ROBERTS

Not long after leading Arkansas State to the 2005 Sun Belt Conference championship and New Orleans Bowl, head coach Steve Roberts continues to make ASU a dominant force in the Sun Belt Conference and has ASU on track for continued success in the upcoming years.

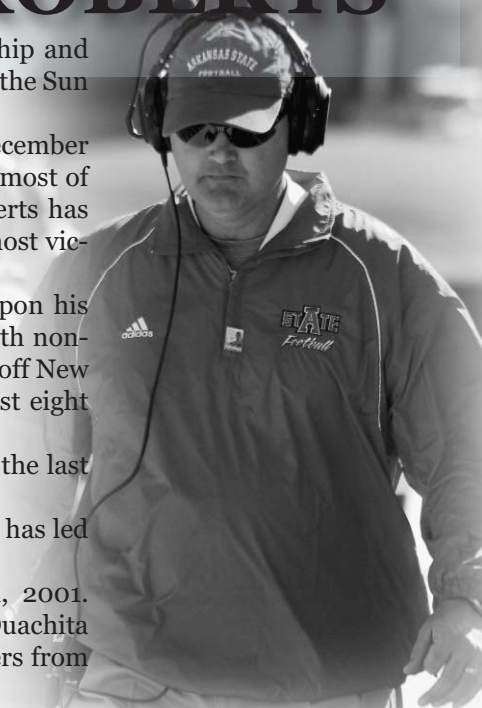

When the 2005 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year took over the program in December 2001, he impressed everyone with his wide-eyed enthusiasm and limitless energy. And, most of all, they believed that Roberts would bring success to the ASU football program. Roberts has been the driving force behind ASU's recent success, leading the football program to its most victories over a six-year span since 1986-91.

Under Roberts' direction, ASU continues to add to the achievements that began upon his arrival. The 2006 and 2007 ASU teams backed up the 2005 Sun Belt championship with non-conference wins over teams such as Army, Memphis and SMU. The 2006 squad knocked off New Orleans Bowl champion Troy and the 2007 team fell to then-ranked No. 4 Texas by just eight points and pushed New Orleans Bowl champion Florida Atlantic to the final minutes.

The 2007 team won the Sun Belt Conference academic award for the fourth time in the last five years and finished with the second most yards of total offense in school history.

Roberts already holds the fifth most wins among ASU's 26 all-time head coaches and has led the Indians to a 22-7 record at ASU Stadium, which included a 5-1 record in 2007.

Roberts was named Arkansas State's 26th head football coach on December 21, 2001. Roberts graduated from Robinson High School in Little Rock. A 1987 graduate of Ouachita Baptist University, where he was an Academic All-American, Roberts received his masters from SAU in 1989. He and his wife Sherri have one daughter – Abby (13).

ROBERTS' ARKANSAS STATE HIGHLIGHTS

- Arkansas State defeats Texas A&M 18-14 on Aug. 30, 2008 for its first victory over a BCS member since joining NCAA FBS (formerly Division I-A)
- Roberts has led ASU to its most victories over a six-year span since 1986-91.
- Already holds the fifth most wins among ASU's 26 all-time head coaches.
- 2005 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year.
- Holds non-conference victories over teams such as Tulsa, Army, SMU and Memphis.
- Led ASU to the 2005 Sun Belt Conf. Championship, the Red Wolves' first league championship since 1986.
- The Red Wolves were undefeated at home in 2005 and are 22-7 at ASU Stadium under Roberts.
- ASU's 2005 New Orleans Bowl appearance was the first for ASU since the 1970 Pecan Bowl.
- Under Roberts the Red Wolves have picked up 53 all-conference selections, including 10 two of the last three years to tie its most ever as a member of the SBC. ASU also placed 10 players on the list in 2002, 2005 and 2006 and nine in 2007. The Red Wolves' 10 all-conference selections in 2006 were the second most among the league's eight members.
- Roberts has coached a Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year, Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year. In 2006, he coached two players that were named to at least one Freshman All-America team.
- The Red Wolves finished in the top 10 turnarounds by a Division I-A school his first season at the helm, going from 2-9 in 2001 to 6-7 in 2002.

GAME 1

August 30, College Station, TX (Kyle Field - 78,691) - Arkansas State 18, Texas A&M 14

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (8/30/08) – The first game of a new era provided what was arguably the biggest victory in the long history of Arkansas State University football.

Playing its first football game as the Red Wolves, Arkansas State left 78,691 Texas A&M fans at Kyle Field stunned, defeating the Aggies 18-14 Saturday night in the season opener for both teams. Texas A&M had won its last 20 home openers, and the loss was just the fourth defeat for the Aggies in their last 50 non-conference games at home.

Arkansas State got its only touchdown of the night when it needed it the most.

After penetrating the Texas A&M 30-yard line five times and coming away with three field goals and two turnovers, Arkansas State went on top to stay when junior quarterback Corey Leonard connected with senior wide receiver Kevin Jones from 15 yards out, giving the Red Wolves a 15-14 lead with 4:39 to play.

A missed two-point conversion attempt proved inconsequential when a Texas A&M turnover on its next possession led to junior Josh Arauco's fourth field goal of the night. Arauco's kick boosted the ASU lead to 18-14, and Arkansas State forced another turnover on the Aggies' final drive to seal the win.

Junior tailback Reggie Arnold rushed 21 times for 145 yards on the night, Leonard added 86 yards on the ground to go along with 160 passing yards, and Arauco was a perfect 4-for-4 in the game. His four field goals were a career high.

Arkansas State scored on the game's first possession when the Red Wolves drove 60 yards to set up Arauco's first field goal. Arkansas State used a 19-yard completion from junior quarterback Corey Leonard to junior wideout Jahbari McLennan on third-and-six from the ASU 35 to keep the drive alive.

A two-yard keeper by Leonard on fourth-and-one at the Aggie 37 again kept the possession alive, and Leonard passed complete for 15 yards to Jones on the next play to set up Arauco's field goal. Arauco's kick wrapped up the 13-play drive and put the Red Wolves on top 3-0 with 8:45 remaining in the opening quarter.

Texas A&M answered with an 8-play drive that ended when junior tailback Mike Goodson scored from nine yards out to put the Aggies on the board. Senior Richie Bean added the extra point for the 7-3 A&M lead with 6:20 to play in the first period.

The Aggies made it 14-3 with 4:23 remaining in the half when Goodson scored again, this time from seven yards out to wrap up a 12-play, 77-yard drive.

Arkansas State took advantage of an interception by junior defensive back M.D. Jennings midway through the third quarter to cut the Texas A&M advantage to 14-6.

Jennings picked off a pass from A&M quarterback Stephen McGee at the ASU 41 to give the Red Wolves possession of the ball and ASU marched 47 yards on nine plays to set up Arauco's second field goal of the night. Arauco connected from 28 yards out on the kick to cut the deficit to 14-8 with 5:28 remaining in the third.

Junior safety Marcus Brown forced a fumble by Texas A&M wide receiver Howard Morrow on the Aggies' next drive, and the ball was recovered by ASU defensive end Jeremy Gibson to set up the Red Wolf offense at the Aggie 47.

Arkansas State moved 39 yards on the possession, with 32 of those yards coming on a run from Leonard to the Texas A&M 15, and Arauco completed the possession with his third field goal of the night. Arauco's kick was good from 29 yards out, trimming the Texas A&M lead to 14-9 with 14 seconds to go in the third quarter.

Texas A&M went three-and-out on its next possession and Bean missed wide on a 27-yard field goal attempt the next time the Aggies had the ball, setting the stage for ASU's game-winning drive.

Taking over at the ASU 20 with 9:30 remaining, Leonard directed the Red Wolves 80 yards in 10 plays on a drive that consumed 4:51 seconds on the clock. Arnold rushed for 44 yards on the drive and Leonard hooked up with McLennan for 15 yards and a first down at the A&M 21 on fourth-and-13 from the Aggie 36 to keep the possession going.

Senior defensive back Dominique Williams led Arkansas State with nine tackles on the night, junior defensive back Daylan Walker added seven, senior linebacker Ben Owens also had seven to go along with a fumble recovery and the game-clinching interception, and junior defensive back Evan Van Dolah had six stops.
