DEBUT OF THE RED WOLVES: The Arkansas State football team is competing in its first season as the Red Wolves after changing its nickname and mascot from Indians at the conclusion of the 2007-08 athletic seasons. More information on the Red Wolves mascot and logos, as well as the change in names can be found on page 171 of the 2008 ASU Football Media Guide.

THE ARKANSAS STATE - ULM SERIES: Louisiana-Monroe leads the all-time series with Arkansas State 16-13 since the first meeting in 1959. As Sun Belt foes, ASU leads the series 4-3 despite dropping a 30-13 decision at ULM in its Sun Belt Conference opener last season. Arkansas State has still won four of the last six meetings, the only other setback over the last six seasons coming 27-31 at ULM in 2005.

OLD TIES: While Arkansas State and Louisiana-Monroe have met the past seven seasons as Sun Belt Conference opponents, it is not the first time the two teams have shared a league. Both the Red Wolves and the Warhawks were members of the Southland Conference from 1982-86.

ARKANSAS STATE vs. SUN BELT CONFERENCE: Arkansas State is 53-51-1 all-time against current members of the Sun Belt Conference. Since the league's inaugural football season in 2001, the Red Wolves are 24-24 against all opponents that have been a member of the league. Against current members of the conference, ASU is 19-20 since 2001. The Red Wolves hold their most all-time victories against Louisiana-Lafayette with 17, while its most victories against a Sun Belt opponent since 2001 is Louisiana-Monroe with four. The Red Wolves have defeated every team in the Sun Belt Conference since the football league was formed in 2001.

JAZZ IN JONESBORO: The Third Annual Jazz in Jonesboro, the official Mid-South Barbeque Championship, gets underway Friday, Oct. 10, and is set for another exciting year of entertainment that will include a free concert by country music star Josh Gracin, award-winning barbeque and festivities for all ages leading up to Arkansas State's home football game against Louisiana-Monroe at 6:00 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 11. KFIN (107.9 FM) is the premier sponsor for this year's Jazz in Jonesboro event, officially sanctioned by the Memphis Barbeque Network (MBN), that will be held in the Tomlinson Stadium parking lot and the the track and field area located directly north of the lot. Gracin, who drew a crowd of over 10,000 for a recent show at the Marietta, Ga. fair, will headline the event with a concert open to the public Friday night at 8:00 p.m., but there are a number of other events surrounding Jazz in Jonesboro that should attract a large crowd.

COMING OFF THE OPEN WEEK: ASU is coming off its first of three open weeks this season, the most ever under a Steve Roberts' coached football team. The Red Wolves are 2-1 all-time under Roberts in games following an open week. ASU defeated SMU 45-28 last season after an open date due to a rescheduled game with Memphis. The Red Wolves also defeated Louisiana-Lafayette 39-36 following their last open date of 2005. ASU dropped its game after its first open date of 2005, a 45-7 setback to Middle Tennessee.

OUT OF THE GATES: Arkansas State's 3-1 start through four games was not only its best ever as an NCAA FBS member, but also its best at any level since it was 3-0-1 in 1986. The Red Wolves current 3-2 record matches its start in 2006 when they actually posted a 5-2 record through their first seven games.

SUN BELT START: Arkansas State, currently 1-0 in league play, can match its 2-0 Sun Belt Conference starts of 2002 and 2006 under head coach Steve Roberts with a victory. ASU's best start ever in Sun Belt action came in 2006 with a 3-0 record through its first three league games.

NICE CROWDS: ASU's first three home crowds of the 2008 season all rank among the top 10 in ASU Stadium history. Not only that, it is the first time in ASU history that the football team played three home games each in front of 20,000 or more spectators during the same season. The combined crowds for ASU's first three games this season(71,935) is the largest for any three games played at ASU Stadium in the same season. ASU's current average home attendance of 23,978 is more than 6,000 spectators higher than its school record for average home attendance during a single season. Following is attendance for each home game this season and where it ranks all-time at ASU:

Southern Miss	25,938..... 4th

Texas Southern.....	21,741..... 9th

ASU TWICE SWEEPS WEEKLY SBC

AWARDS: Arkansas State has swept the weekly Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week awards twice this season. ASU was awarded the offensive, defensive and special teams awards following their victories over Texas A&M and Middle Tennessee. Junior quarterback Corey Leonard has been named the league's offensive player of the week twice this season and six times for his career. Daylan Walker and Ben Owens have been named the SBC Defensive Player of the Week this season, while Josh Arauco and Kevin Jones have both been named the league's special teams player of the week.

ASU swept all three awards for the first time in school history on Sept. 1.

A Sun Belt team has swept the awards three time this season, but just the 12 times in Sun Belt Conference history. ASU also became just the second school in league history to sweep the awards two different weeks during the same season.

BUCKLE DOWN: The ASU defense has not given up more than 14 points in three of its five games this season, while the lowest score by an ASU opponent last year was 16 points. The last time ASU held more opponents to 14 or fewer points was 2006 when it did so five times. ASU is ranked first in the Sun Belt Conference and 38th in the nation in scoring defense, giving up just 18.8 points per game.

PROTECTING THE QUARTERBACK:

ASU gave up six sacks against Memphis, but that has not been the norm for the Red Wolves this season. In fact, ASU did not give up a sack against Middle Tennessee two games ago, marking the first time in 39 games that an ASU opponent was held without a single sack. Before the MT game, the last time an ASU opponent did not record a sack was the final game of the 2004 season against North Texas. ASU gave up just four total sacks this season prior to the Memphis game, ranking third in the Sun Belt Conference for "sacks against" at the time. ASU gave up 38 sacks last season, ranking seventh in the league.

TOUCHDOWN GRAB: Just five games into the season, senior tight end David Johnson already has five touchdown catches. Those five touchdown grabs not only top Johnson's total touchdown receptions for the last three years combined (4), they are enough to rank tied for the fifth most in school history for a single season. Just four ASU players have ever caught more touchdown passes in a single-season than Johnson already has this year.

LEONARD MILESTONES: Corey

Leonard has already hit several milestones this season. The junior quarterback is just the fourth player in school history to pass for over 4,500 yards (4,666), the third player to throw at least 30 touchdowns (34) and the fifth player to record over 5,000 yards of total offense (5,845). Leonard is already ranked second all-time at ASU for passing touchdowns and third for completions (360), passing yards and total offense.

AUTOMATIC ARAUCO: Junior kicker

Josh Arauco has made his first nine field goals this season, leaving him only one shy of the school record for consecutive field goals made. Arauco is one of three players in school history to make 10 straight field goals. He has also made his first 20 extra points this season, extending his streak of consecutive makes to 58. His 58 straight successful extra points is the second longest streak in ASU history, behind only Eric Neihouse's 78 straight makes from 2003-05.

DISRUPTING THE BACKFIELD: Alex

Carrington already has a Sun Belt Conference-high eight tackles for loss, which tops his previous career best for a single season (5 in 2007). Carrington has a league-high five sacks as well, which tops his total of two for his freshman and sophomore seasons combined. The junior defensive end is ranked tied for fifth and tied ninth in the nation in sacks and tackles for loss, respectively.

The full release can be found on astateredwolves.com.

SHRABLE NAMED TO RAY GUY WATCH LIST: Senior punter Brett Shrable has been named to the watch list for the 2008 Ray Guy Award, given annually to the nation's top collegiate punter. Shrable, one of 46 players on the watch list, is the second player in ASU history to be named to the Ray Guy Award Watch List. Andy Shatley is the only other ASU player to receive the recognition, making the list in 2000. Shrable was a 2007 Second Team All-Sun Belt Conference selection as a junior and was named 2008 preseason All-Sun Belt Conference by Athlon's and Phil Steele's.

ARNOLD ON DOAK WALKER WATCH LIST: Junior running back Reggie Arnold has been named to the list of candidates for the 2008 Doak Walker Award, announced by the Guaranty Bank SMU Athletic Forum.

Arnold is a candidate for the award, presented annually to the nation's top running back, for the second straight year and joins former ASU running back Jonathan Adams as the only two players in school history to make the watch list during two different seasons. Adams was a candidate for the award in 2000 and 2001.

Arnold is among 43 candidates, including two from the Sun Belt Conference, to be named to the award's 2008 watch list. The Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference selection rushed for over 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons at ASU. He was named the Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year in 2006 and is a two-time all-conference pick.

OWENS ON BUTKUS WATCH LIST: Senior linebacker Ben Owens has been named to the watch list for the 2008 Butkus Award, given annually to the top linebacker in college football. Owens, a preseason All-Sun Belt Conference selection, was one of 66 players named to the watch list after posting a career-high 96 tackles last season that ranked fifth in the Sun Belt. His 96 tackles were just five fewer than team-leader Koby McKinnon, who was on the 2007 Butkus Award Watch List.

MANDICH WATCH LIST: Senior offensive lineman Matt Mandich is not only a preseason First Team All-Sun Belt Conference by a number of college football publications, he is also on a couple of prestigious watch lists. Mandich is on both the Outland Trophy Watch List and Rotary Lombardi Watch List. Not only that, he was named preseason Honorable Mention All-America by Sporting News.

FAST TRACK TO DEGREE: Corey Leonard, just a junior on the football field, went through ASU's Summer Commencement ceremony this year after earning his bachelor's degree in just three years in Business. Leonard is now enrolled graduate school and will begin working toward his master's degree this fall.

400TH VICTORY: With its victory over Louisiana-Lafayette on Oct. 13 of last year, ASU became the fifth Sun Belt Conference school with 400 all-time wins. ASU is in its 94th season of football and holds an all-time record of 404-430-37 since its inaugural 1911 season. The Red Wolves have played in seven bowl games, including the 2005 New Orleans Bowl.

SIX-YEAR IMPROVEMENT: During seventh-year head coach Steve Roberts' first six seasons at Arkansas State the football program saw its win total increase by almost 100 percent over the previous six years. ASU posted 31 wins over Roberts' first six years, 14 more than it recorded the six years prior to Roberts. In fact, ASU's 31 wins over those six years are the most for a six-year span since 1986-91.

TEAM CAPTAINS: ASU's senior class will alternate throughout the year as team captains. The team will vote on permanent captains at the end of the year.

TEAM ACADEMIC AWARD: The Arkansas State football team has won the Sun Belt Conference Team Academic Award four of the past five years, including 2007.

A VISIT FROM THE GOVERNOR: Arkansas Governor Mike Beebe looked on as the Arkansas State Red Wolves went through a two-hour practice at the ASU practice fields during 2008 fall camp. Beebe, who was the guest speaker at the ASU Touchdown Club banquet Tuesday that night, addressed the team following practice, then took time to pose for pictures with ASU players and fans. "Obviously, it was a privilege for us to have the governor of the state of Arkansas here at our practice and to speak to our team," said ASU Head Coach Steve Roberts. "We are very proud of what he has accomplished and continues to accomplish as the governor and as an ASU Alumnus."

AFCA AWARD: Prior to the start of the 2007 season, the American Football Coaches Association announced that the Arkansas State University football team was one of just 34 Division I-A football programs that graduated 70 percent or more of its student-athletes from their freshman classes of 2001-02.

A TIME TO BOND: When Head Coach Steve Roberts came to ASU, he brought a tradition with him which caught on in a hurry with the players. The night before each game, team members and coaches get together for milk and cookies. During this time, each player sits by and visits with at least three other players he has not visited with throughout the week in order to learn more about his teammates.

HEAD COACH STEVE ROBERTS

Not long after leading Arkansas State to the 2005 Sun Belt Conference championship and New Orleans Bowl, head coach Steve Roberts continues to make ASU a dominant force in the Sun Belt Conference and has ASU on track for continued success in the upcoming years.

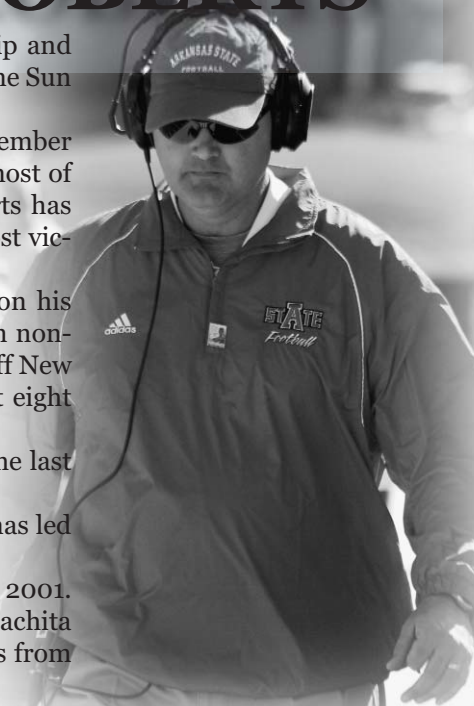

When the 2005 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year took over the program in December 2001, he impressed everyone with his wide-eyed enthusiasm and limitless energy. And, most of all, they believed that Roberts would bring success to the ASU football program. Roberts has been the driving force behind ASU's recent success, leading the football program to its most victories over a six-year span since 1986-91.

Under Roberts' direction, ASU continues to add to the achievements that began upon his arrival. The 2006 and 2007 ASU teams backed up the 2005 Sun Belt championship with non-conference wins over teams such as Army, Memphis and SMU. The 2006 squad knocked off New Orleans Bowl champion Troy and the 2007 team fell to then-ranked No. 4 Texas by just eight points and pushed New Orleans Bowl champion Florida Atlantic to the final minutes.

The 2007 team won the Sun Belt Conference academic award for the fourth time in the last five years and finished with the second most yards of total offense in school history.

Roberts already holds the fifth most wins among ASU's 26 all-time head coaches and has led the Red Wolves to a 24-8 record at ASU Stadium, which included a 5-1 record in 2007.

Roberts was named Arkansas State's 26th head football coach on December 21, 2001. Roberts graduated from Robinson High School in Little Rock. A 1987 graduate of Ouachita Baptist University, where he was an Academic All-American, Roberts received his masters from SAU in 1989. He and his wife Sherri have one daughter – Abby (13).

GAME 1

August 30, College Station, TX (Kyle Field - 78,691) - Arkansas State 18, Texas A&M 14

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (8/30/08) – The first game of a new era provided what was arguably the biggest victory in the long history of Arkansas State University football.

Playing its first football game as the Red Wolves, Arkansas State left 78,691 Texas A&M fans at Kyle Field stunned, defeating the Aggies 18-14 in the season opener for both teams. Texas A&M had won its last 20 home openers, and the loss was just the fourth defeat for the Aggies in their last 50 non-conference games at home.

Arkansas State got its only touchdown of the night when it needed it the most.

After penetrating the Texas A&M 30-yard line five times and coming away with three field goals and two turnovers, Arkansas State went on top to stay when junior quarterback Corey Leonard connected with senior wide receiver Kevin Jones from 15 yards out, giving the Red Wolves a 15-14 lead with 4:39 to play.

A missed two-point conversion attempt proved inconsequential when a Texas A&M turnover on its next possession led to junior Josh Arauco's fourth field goal of the night. Arauco's kick boosted the ASU lead to 18-14, and Arkansas State forced another turnover on the Aggies' final drive to seal the win.

Junior tailback Reggie Arnold rushed 21 times for 145 yards on the night, Leonard added 86 yards on the ground to go along with 160 passing yards, and Arauco was a perfect 4-for-4 in the game. His four field goals were a career high.

Arkansas State scored on the game's first possession when the Red Wolves drove 60 yards to set up Arauco's first field goal. Arkansas State used a 19-yard completion from junior quarterback Corey Leonard to junior wideout Jahbari McLennan on third-and-six from the ASU 35 to keep the drive alive.

Arauco's kick wrapped up the 13-play drive and put the Red Wolves on top 3-0 with 8:45 remaining in the opening quarter.

The Aggies made it 14-3 with 4:23 remaining in the half when Goodson scored again, this time from seven yards out to wrap up a 12-play, 77-yard drive.

Arkansas State took advantage of an interception by junior defensive back M.D. Jennings midway through the third quarter to cut the Texas A&M advantage to 14-6.

Jennings picked off a pass from A&M quarterback Stephen McGee at the ASU 41 to give the Red Wolves possession of the ball and ASU marched 47 yards on nine plays to set up Arauco's second field goal of the night. Arauco connected from 28 yards out on the kick to cut the deficit to 14-8 with 5:28 remaining in the third.

Junior safety Marcus Brown forced a fumble by Texas A&M wide receiver Howard Morrow on the Aggies' next drive, and the ball was recovered by ASU defensive end Jeremy Gibson to set up the Red Wolf offense at the Aggie 47.

Arkansas State moved 39 yards on the possession, with 32 of those yards coming on a run from Leonard to the Texas A&M 15, and Arauco completed the possession with his third field goal of the night. Arauco's kick was good from 29 yards out, trimming the Texas A&M lead to 14-9 with 14 seconds to go in the third quarter.

Texas A&M went three-and-out on its next possession and Bean missed wide on a 27-yard field goal attempt the next time the Aggies had the ball, setting the stage for ASU's game-winning drive.

Taking over at the ASU 20 with 9:30 remaining, Leonard directed the Red Wolves 80 yards in 10 plays on a drive that consumed 4:51 seconds on the clock. Arnold rushed for 44 yards on the drive and Leonard hooked up with McLennan for 15 yards and a first down at the A&M 21 on fourth-and-13 from the Aggie 36 to keep the possession going.

Senior defensive back Dominique Williams led Arkansas State with nine tackles on the night, junior defensive back Daylan Walker added seven, senior linebacker Ben Owens also had seven to go along with a fumble recovery and the game-clinching interception, and junior defensive back Evan Van Dolah had six stops.

September 13, Jonesboro, AR (ASU Stadium - 25,938) - Southern Miss 27, Arkansas State 24

JONESBORO (9/13/08) – The Southern Miss Golden Eagles (2-1) held off a furious second-half rally by Arkansas State and came away with a 27-24 victory over the Red Wolves (2-1) at ASU Stadium.

Down 17-3 at the half, ASU came roaring back in the third quarter with 14 straight points to tie the score at 17, only to see Southern Miss answer with 10 straight to open the fourth quarter.

Southern Miss benefitted from an ASU miscue on a field goal attempt early in the fourth quarter to begin building its 10-point cushion. With the Red Wolves lined up for a 31-yard field goal attempt with just over 12 minutes to play that would have given ASU a 20-17 lead, Southern Miss turned the tables when cornerback C.J. Bailey scooped up an ASU fumble on the play and returned it to the Arkansas State 11. Bailey's return set up a 28-yard field goal from Golden Eagle placekicker Justin Estes that gave USM a 20-17 lead with 10:47 remaining.

Southern Miss then put together a 93-yard drive that ended in a 24-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Austin Davis to tailback Damion Fletcher with 5:30 to play that padded the Golden Eagle lead at 27-17.

Refusing to go quietly, Arkansas State moved 83 yards in just over three minutes to pull within 27-24. Junior quarterback Corey Leonard completed three passes for 52 yards on the drive, including a 5-yard touchdown pass to freshman fullback Jeff Blake to complete the drive with 2:14 to play.

Arkansas State's defense held Southern Miss to three-and-out on the Eagles' ensuing possession to give the Red Wolves one final opportunity with 1:44 remaining.

Starting at the ASU 20, Leonard connected with wideout Anthony Robertson for 26 yards on third-and-five to give the Red Wolves a first down at the USM 46 with just over a minute to play, but an interception by Southern Miss cornerback Eddie Willingham with 59 seconds remaining sealed the victory for USM.

Southern Miss converted 9-of-10 third down opportunities in the first half to build its 17-3 lead at the break. The Eagles opened the game with a 19-play, 68 yard drive that chewed up 10:17 on the game clock and ended with a 23-yard field goal from kicker Justin Estes.

Arkansas State answered with a 55-yard drive that ended in a 41-yard field goal from Josh Arauco that tied the score at 3-3 less than two minutes later, but Southern Miss tacked on a pair of touchdowns to build the 14-point halftime lead.

Tailback Tory Harrison scored on a 1-yard run with 12:09 remaining in the half and tight end Jonathan Massey hauled in a 1-yard pass from Davis to put the Eagles on top 17-3 at the break.

Leonard finished the game with 325 yards of total offense, including 256 yards and a pair of touchdowns through the air. Junior tailback Reggie Arnold added 84 yards on 15 carries and freshman tailback Derek Lawson had 73 yards on seven rushing attempts. Tight end Trevor Gillott had a career-high 79 yards on five receptions.

Sophomore safety M.D. Jennings had 13 tackles to lead the ASU defense.

JONESBORO (9/20/08) – Arkansas State junior quarterback Corey Leonard rolled up a career-high 366 yards of total offense, leading the Red Wolves to a 31-14 victory over Middle Tennessee State in ASU's Sun Belt Conference opener before a crowd of 24,256 at ASU Stadium.

The Arkansas State defense did its part as well, keeping the Blue Raiders off the scoreboard for the better part of three quarters, intercepting two passes and recording six tackles behind the line of scrimmage for 30 yards of loss.

Arkansas State led 17-0 at the half, extended its lead to 24-0 on the first possession of the second half, and snuffed out any Middle Tennessee momentum gained when the Blue Raiders scored by answering MTSU's first touchdown with the Red Wolves fourth trip to the end zone.

Arkansas State used a 7-play, 57-yard drive to go up 7-0 late in the first quarter, capitalizing on two big completions from Leonard to Norman to set up the score. Leonard and Norman hooked up for 26 yards and a first down at the MTSU 27, then connected for 11 more and another set of downs at the Blue Raider 17. Two plays later, Leonard found Reggie Arnold alone on the right sideline and the junior tailback went 17 yards untouched for the score.

Placekicker Josh Arauco added the extra point to give ASU a 7-0 lead with 3:26 remaining in the opening quarter.

Arauco added three points more with 8:30 remaining in the second quarter when he booted through a 35-yard field goal to cap an 81-yard ASU drive, and the Red Wolves still weren't finished for the half.

Taking possession at their own 33 with 50 seconds remaining in second quarter, Arkansas State found the end zone again just 14 seconds later when Leonard hit senior tight end David Johnson with a 14-yard touchdown strike to stretch the ASU lead to 17-0 with 36 seconds remaining in the half. The play was set up by a 53-yard completion from Leonard to Norman on the first play of the drive.

The Red Wolves carried their momentum over past the break, scoring on the first possession of the second half to stretch the Arkansas State lead to 24-0. ASU moved 74 yards on 11 plays to open the third quarter, completing the drive when Leonard connected with Johnson for their second touchdown of the night, this time from two yards out at the 8:35 mark.

Middle Tennessee got on the board late in the third quarter when Blue Raider tailback Phillip Tanner scored from two yards out to end a nine-play 76-yard drive. Kicker Alan Gendreau added the extra point to cut the Arkansas State lead to 24-7 with 2:19 remaining in the quarter, but ASU answered the score with an 88-yard drive to extend the Red Wolves lead to 31-7.

Starting at the ASU 12, Leonard completed three passes on the drive, added 37 yards on the ground, and freshman tailback Derek Lawson ended the drive with a 14-yard touchdown run. Arauco put through his fourth extra point of the night to make it 31-7 with 12:34 to play.

The Blue Raiders scored again on their next possession, driving 80 yards in seven plays to cut the Red Wolves advantage to 31-14 with just over nine minutes to play, but the Arkansas State defense stopped Middle Tennessee on downs at the ASU 42 on the Blue Raiders next possession, and Arkansas State ran out the clock to seal the win.

In addition to the career night from Leonard and Norman, ASU got 90 yards from senior wide receiver Kevin Jones and 49 yards and a pair of touchdowns from Johnson. Lawson added 57 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries.

Junior cornerback Daylan Walker led the ASU defense with nine tackles and an interception, junior defensive end Alex Carrington added a pair of quarterback sacks and six tackles, and senior cornerback Dominique Williams had four tackles and an interceptions.

Daylan Walker was named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week after posting nine tackles and an interception against Middle Tennessee.

GAME 5

September 27, Memphis, TN (Liberty Bowl - 26,376) - Memphis 29, Arkansas State 17

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (9/27/08) – Memphis tailback Curtis Steele rushed for 203 yards and a touchdown to lead the Tigers (2-4) to a 29-17 victory over the Arkansas State Red Wolves (3-2) Saturday afternoon at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium.

Arkansas State overcame a 13-0 deficit in the first quarter to take a 17-16 lead at the half, but the Tigers used two big runs from Steele in the second half to set up a pair of field goals from Vinny Zaccario, giving Memphis a 22-17 lead. Steele added a two-yard touchdown run late in the game to set the final score.

After chalking up 228 yards in the first 30 minutes, the ASU offense never got going in the final two quarters. The Red Wolves gained just 124 yards in the second half and suffered a pair of turnovers.

Memphis scored on its first two possessions in building the 13-0 lead. The Tigers went 69 yards in nine plays on the game's opening possession to put the first touchdown on the board. Tailback Charlie Jones completed the drive with a 3-yard touchdown run and Zaccario added the extra point for the 7-0 Tiger advantage.

Jones added a 7-yard touchdown run on the Tigers second possession, capping an 8-play, 69-yard drive by the Tigers. Zaccario's extra point was blocked by ASU, leaving the Tigers with a 13-0 advantage.

Arkansas State got on the board early in the second quarter when the Red Wolves put together a 5-play, 56-yard drive that ended when junior quarterback Corey Leonard scrambled in from 23 yards out for the touchdown. Kicker Josh Arauco's extra point cut the Memphis lead to 13-7.

A 94-yard drive later in the half gave Arkansas State its first lead. After rushing twice for no gain to open the possession, junior tailback Reggie Arnold took a screen pass from Leonard down the left sideline 51 yards to the Memphis 43. Freshman tailback Derek Lawson rushed three times for 35 yards for a first down at the Memphis nine and one play later, Arnold was in the end zone. Arauco's extra point put Arkansas State on top 14-13 with 7:53 remaining in the half.

Memphis countered with a 20-yard field goal from Zaccario with just under four minutes remaining before the break, but ASU went into the locker room with a 17-16 lead after the Red Wolves marched 51 yards to set up a 33-yard Arauco field goal with 18 seconds remaining in the half.

A 46-yard run from Steele helped the Tigers regain the lead in the third. Zaccario followed the run with a 35-yard field goal, and Steele added a 37-yard run in the fourth to set up a 40-yarder from Zaccario that gave Memphis a 22-17 lead with 7:58 to play.

Arkansas State went three-and-out on its next possession, and Memphis responded with a nine-play, 70-yard drive that ended in Steele's two-yard touchdown run with 2:12 to play.

Leonard was 11-of-23 on the day with an interception and Lawson led the ASU rushing attack with 79 yards on 11 carries. Sophomore safety M.D. Jennings had 11 tackles and an interception to lead the ASU defense.
